MOSES BARROW (son of THOMAS, JR.) of NORTH CAROLINA and GEORGIA

- 15-1755 - MOSES BARROW was born "on FISHING CREEK" in Edgecombe Co., N.C. (an area later cut off into Halifax Co.). Date of birth in the records of a direct descendant, Mrs. FRANCES B. WOOD of Macon, GA.
- 1760 - Moved to his father's newly purchased plantation on NEW RIVER in Onslow Co., N. C.
- 1761 - His father, THOMAS BARROW, JR. (son of THOMAS, SR. who died testate in SOUTHAMPTON Co., VA in 1763) died naming MOSES in his Will.
- 1762 - His mother, ELIZABETH (nee ATKINSON) BARROW died in Onslow County, soon after giving birth to a daughter named SALLY.
- 1762 - MOSES was taken to the plantation of his Uncle SOLOMON ATKINSON in HALIFAX/EDGECOMBE Co. area where he was raised by his Grand-mother ATKINSON.
- 1776-1781 - MOSES served during the American Revolution in Capt. Bacot's 10th Reg't under Col. Abraham Sheppard (NSDAR Patriot Index, p. 40).
- 1790 - MOSES appears on the U. S. Census in EDGECOMBE Co., N.C., p. 54, with two males under 16 yrs and 2 females, all ages, giving rise to the question that he may have been married twice or that he had married a widow with three children. He had five known children by his wife MARTHA (in other records she has been identified as MILDRED POWELL). See "BARROW - An Early Southern Family", Vol. II, No. 3, p. 23, for Bible records of his known children.
- 7-31-1784 - MOSES BARROW "of EDGECOMBE Co., N.C." purchased 187 acres "on FISHING CREEK and DEEP CREEK" from THOMAS WELLS (DB 4:118), wit: THOMAS HODGES, RICHARD PUTNEY. MOSES had 4 slaves in the 1790 Census.
- 10-7-1785 - MOSES sold his 187 acre tract to his brother, JAMES and wife ANN "of EDGECOMBE Co." (DB 4:305), wit: JOSEPH HART, BENJAMIN HART. After his brother, JAMES, moved to GEORGIA in 1789, we find that JAMES and wife ANN "of BURKE Co., GA" sold this 187 acre tract to MICAHAH EDWARDS "of EDGECOMBE Co." on August 13th, 1793 (DB 7:248).
- 6-25-1793 - MOSES BARROW, living in HALIFAX Co., N. C. (where his brother, JACOB, had died in 1790 leaving a widow, MILLEA (nee SMITH) and 4 small children), sold "Lot No. 25" in the Town of TARBOROUGH in EDGECOMBE County (DB 7:221), being joined by his wife MARTHA _____ in this sale.
- 12-26-1795 - MOSES BARROW, his wife MARTHA, and his sister-in-law cosigned a deed in HALIFAX Co., N. C. We have not researched this deed, at this writing, and do not know why MILLEA (nee SMITH) BARROW may have had an interest in this tract of land or vice-versa. After this date, MOSES and MARTHA, with three small children (JACOB b. 1-22-1792) and twins (WILLIAM THOMAS and MARY DREW b. 10-15-1795), moved to a large plantation on KEGG CREEK in WASHINGTON Co., GA, and had 2 additional children: MILDRED SMITH (b. 8-30-1799) and JAMES (b. 12-25-1801).
- 12-28-1801 - MOSES BARROW died intestate. His brother, JAMES of BALDWIN Co., GA, served as the executor of MOSES' estate. His widow, MARTHA, married CHARLES THOMPSON, by whom she had several children before she died about 1812.

BARROW of BEAUFORT County, N. C.

FREDERICK BARROW, of BEAUFORT County, North Carolina, made his Will on January 17th, 1827 which was proven at the BEAUFORT County May Term of Court. Among his children we find a son named HENRY BARROW and a daughter NANCY (nee BARROW) BOYD.

HENRY BARROW served as his father's Executor. Then, we find HENRY named as the Executor of the Will of JOHN H. BOYD dated May 30th, 1828 whom we presume was the husband of NANCY BARROW as he names his wife "NANCY BOYD" to receive his entire estate except for $50.00 he bequeathed to his sister PENNY WARREN. From the Court records, we find that HENRY BARROW did serve as the Executor of JOHN H. BOYD'S estate with an account of Sales and a list Notes being filed in Court on June 24th, 1828. One THOMAS BARROW appears on the list of Purchasers when the Perishable Estate was sold on June 21st, 1828.

One JESSE BARROW and one THOMAS BARROW served as Witnesses to FREDERICK BARROW'S Will on 1-17-1827.

One JESSE BARROW married MARY PERKINS with the Bond dated 12-27-1826. We have speculated that JESSE and THOMAS BARROW were closely related to FREDERICK BARROW of BEAUFORT, all of whom we cannot presently identify until further research is accomplished.

Note: The above from the research of Ms. CAROL JEAN BARROW of Atlanta, GA who also contributes the following Marriage records: (Partial listing from Marriage Index) -

North Carolina Marriages - County not specified:

JOHN BARROW and MARTHA WALKER - November 23rd, 1748

ELIZABETH BARROW and ROBERT WHEATON - April 6th, 1816

LYDIA BARROW and RICHARD FELTON - March 15th, 1819

MARY BARROW and HENRY SMITH - December 9th, 1820

AMANDA BARROW and RICHARD WILDER - January 29th, 1822

BARROW in GEORGIA

Ms. CAROL J. BARROW further states: "...JOHN PORTER BARROW appears in the 1850 Census as being 19 years of age, enrolled as a student at Emory College at Oxford, Newton Co., Georgia. According to his tombstone in Clinton, Jones County, GA, he died in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania about 1856-57."

Brother of Rev. James

Note: See "BARROW - An Early Southern Family", Vol. I, No. 1, pp 39-40 for a record of the family of JOHN PORTER BARROW. He was the son of WILLIAM THOMAS BARROW (b. 10-15-1795) and his wife SARAH D. BILLINGSLEA who were married in MORGAN County, GA on July 18th, 1821. His grandfather was MOSES BARROW (b. 10-15-1755) of EDGECOMBE/HALIFAX Cos., North Carolina who moved his family to Georgia, settling in WASHINGTON County on KEGG CREEK where he died on 12-28-1801.

WILLIAM THOMAS BARROW had a twin sister named MARY DREW BARROW, about whom we know very little. He had one other sister named MILDREDGE (or MILLEDGE or MILLIEA) SMITH BARROW. Again, we have speculated that she may have been named for MILLEA SMITH of HALIFAX Co., N.C. who was the wife of the older brother of MOSES named JACOB BARROW. MILLEA (called "MILLEY") SMITH was the daughter of DREW SMITH and we have noted that MOSES and his wife MARTHA gave the names of both DREW and SMITH to both of their own daughters, suggesting that MARTHA was somehow closely related to the DREW SMITH family, though proof of it has eluded our researchers. A handsome portrait of JOHN PORTER BARROW appears in No. 3, p. 1 (ibid, op. cit.).

Foreword

THE Continental Congress of 1939 voted that two volumes of indices be printed containing roll of ancestors in Lineage Books numbers 81-120 and 121-160.

This index to volumes 121-160 contains references to volume and page where are to be found records of the services of men and women who assisted in establishing American Independence and the names of their descendants admitted to the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution from the year 1916 to the year 1920.

Where there are several ancestors of the same name this volume contains the names of the states from whence they served and where there are two ancestors of the same name from one state their birth and death dates are given.

The office of the Registrar General is happy to have prepared this second volume of indices during the administration of our much beloved President General, Mrs. Henry M. Robert, Jr.

Dear Patron:

Thank you for your recent purchase of INDEX OF THE ROLLS OF HONOR (ANCESTOR'S INDEX) IN THE LINEAGE BOOKS OF THE NATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION [Volumes 1-160], which it has been our privilege to reissue in 1988. Now in its fourth printing, the INDEX OF THE ROLLS OF HONOR is still the quickest guide to Revolutionary ancestors and their descendants listed in the 160 volumes of Lineage Books published by the DAR between 1916 and 1940.

The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution has asked us to remind you, however, that the 1916-1940 Lineage Books, while useful as tools in locating a lineage, do not constitute sufficient proof for Society membership. These volumes were prepared in the early days of the Society when little or no documentation was required. As a result a number of the lines found in the 1916-1940 Lineage Books have been superseded by more recent research associated with higher standards of scholarship.

The DAR encourages anyone who consults the 1916-1940 Lineage Books to also refer to the corrections to the Lineage Books found in the NSDAR Patriot Index, Vols. 1, 2 & 3 and the "Correction List" which is published in various issues of the NSDAR Magazine.

Sincerely,

Joe Garonzik

Foreword

THE Continental Congress of 1936 voted that the work of compiling the Lineage Books of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution be done in the office of the Registrar General instead of in the office of the Historian General. Since that time seventeen volumes have been compiled containing numbers 149,001 to 166,000.

The Continental Congress of 1939 voted that two volumes of indices be printed containing roll of ancestors in Lineage Books numbers 81 to 120, and 121 to 160. This index to volumes 81-120 contains references to volume and page, where are to be found records of the services of men and women who assisted in establishing American Independence and the names of their descendants admitted to the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution from the year 1910 to the year 1916.

It has been a pleasure for the able assistants in the office of the Registrar General to prepare this volume during the administration of our beloved President General, Mrs. Henry M. Robert, Jr.

Foreword

SOON after entering upon the duties of the office of Historian General three years ago, there was brought to my attention the need and the demand for a further index to the Rolls of Honor (Ancestor's Index) in the Lineage Books. More than sixty volumes of Lineage Books had been issued by the National Society and there was a general index for volumes 1-40 only. This had been published in 1916 by Mrs. Samuel A. Ammon and dedicated to Pennsylvania Daughters of the American Revolution.

Personally, I assumed the task of making a card index for the volumes to be issued during my term of office. A card index for the intervening volumes, 41-60, has been made by my able assistants in the office of the Historian General; the work of preparing the cards for the printer has been done in the same way.

The Daughters of the American Revolution in West Virginia, wishing to assist in the publication of this work undertaken by one of their number, have contributed to the National Board of Management $1,500 through their State Regent, Mrs. Robert J. Reed.

This index to volumes 41-80 of the Lineage Books contains references to volume and page, where are to be found a record of the services of men and women who assisted in establishing American independence and the names of their descendants admitted to the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution from the year 1902 to 1910.

My part in this work has been a great pleasure; and with the hope that the book may be of real value to those interested in preserving the early history of our nation, this volume is presented to the National Society as one of the many achievements of the brilliant administration of Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, President General.

LAND LOTTERY
RECORDS

The 1805 Lottery is the only lottery where we have a complete list of all who registered to draw land. In the other five lotteries we have only a complete record of those who drew land. However, in Baldwin County four books in which the names of those who registered to draw in the lottery of 1820 and 1821 were listed. These four books do not comprise all who registered unfortunately, but they are nevertheless helpful insofar as they go because they show the names of some of the residents of Baldwin County who do not appear in the census of 1820 because they were not heads of family.

A number of copies will then be struck off under my own superintendancy in the Town of Louisville, and circulated thro' the various states, where subscriptions may have been obtained. Price for plain Maps 5 dollars, and for those canvassed and elegantly ornamented 8 dollars.

the Creeks in this year one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, which had been previously granted by the state of Georgia; but which tracts had formerly been yielded by the Indians; and to the lands within the forks of the Oconee and Ocmulgee Rivers; for which several objects the President of the United States has directed that a treaty shall be immediately held with the Creeks, and that the United States shall in the same manner extinguish the Indian title to all the other lands within the State of Georgia."

Has justice been done to the state of Georgia by an arrangement which does not merely withhold from her the present possession of this territory, but places the acquisition of it at a period very remote? If it be true that in this treaty our rights have been passed by unnoticed, will it not be the duty of our Senators in Congress to use every constitutional means to prevent its ratification by the Senate of the United States? These hints are thrown out merely to excite investigation, and to elicit information from those who are better calculated than we are to enlighten public opinion. Justice, strict justice, should govern the conduct of states as well as of individuals.

Col Croghan, the Hero of Sandusky, with a detachment of volunteers, has taken possession of Fort Michilimackinac (commonly called Mackinaw) which was evacuated by the British garrison on his approach. This Fort is situated on an island in the strait between lakes Huron and Michigan, and is about 200 miles N. W. of Detroit. Commanding the passage between the two lakes, it is an important post for keeping in awe the North Western Indians. This fort it will be recollected, was captured by the enemy at the beginning of the war, and the Garrison cruelly murdered by the Indians, since which time, till the late expedition, the British have held it un molested.

Much of the Alabama lands ceded by the Indians to the U. States, is said to be of the very best quality. The soil not surpassed by any on the continent, and possessing natural advantages which will render it a most desirable country, preferable perhaps to any other part of the Mississippi Territory. The whole of the Western Territory, originally belonging to Georgia, was sold to the United States for the sum of $1,250,000 to be paid out of the first receipts from the sale of these lands, after deducting the expense of surveying, &c. of this amount about $1,100,000 remains unpaid.

Commodore Chauncey's Fleet has just sailed. They left the Harbor, on the 1st day of August.

from the captain, in the hearing of, and uncontradicted by, his prisoners. These prisoners were yesterday delivered to the Marshal. To view these men, and to look at Leavins—to see the vast disparity of power and size—would be sufficient to make the deed appear romance and incredible, did not our senses and reason bear testimony to its truth.

Thus have five Englishmen been vanquished by the astonishing courage of ONE AMERICAN! If such a deed had been done in ancient Rome a civic crown and public honors would have been bestowed on the hero. Let all who honor daring enterprise, honor the name of James Leavins. Let him be preferred in the navy of our country, & seek a more extensive sphere for the display of skill & unequalled personal courage.

What can the apologists of Britain now say? One American is the enemy of Liberty, has vanquished five subjects of that power, self-styled the "mistress of the ocean!"—Charleston Patriot.

LANCASTER, O August 1. MACKINAW OURS!

By the politeness of General Ross just from Detroit, we are enabled to furnish our readers with the pleasing news that Mackinaw has surrendered to the brave Col. Croghan without firing a gun and that Col. Croghan with his brave volunteers had gone on to St. Joseph's, after leaving a sufficient force to protect Mackinaw.

OUR ONTARIO FLEET.

The "Herkimer American" contains an extract of a letter from Sackett's Harbor, which, after stating that the fleet sailed on the 1st. adds—"They have shaped their course towards the Duck Islands, near Kingston. I presume they intend to offer the enemy battle."

New-York, August 8.

A gentleman who arrived last evening in the Expedition Stage, states that the Secretary of State informed him last Friday, that the John Adams frigate with dispatches from our Commissioners in Europe was hourly expected.

Albany, August 6.

A letter was received in this city yesterday, from Major General Brown, dated Buffalo, August 1st, 1814, which states that our army at Erie were under no fear of being attacked by the British; that reinforcements were joining them, and that he (General Brown) expected soon to be in a situation to resume his command.

General Brown has made a demand on Major General Hall for 1,000 militia.—General Hall has issued his orders for an immediate draft of that number.

the order, on condition of their anchoring on the Dorchester shore, and remaining there until further order.

CAPTURE OF EASTPORT.

The capture of Eastport, on Moose Island, in Maine, is fully confirmed. Comdr. Hardy, by proclamation, invited the inhabitants to take the following oath of allegiance, or quit the Island with their property in seven days:

"I swear that I will bear true allegiance to King George the 3d. of the United Kingdom of G. Britain and Ireland, and to his heirs and successors; and that I will not, directly or indirectly, bear arms against him, his heirs or successors, either by sea or by land. So help me God."

We learn that about two-thirds of the inhabitants had taken the oath, and were pursuing their customary business. The laws of the United States were to continue in force. Since the capture some reinforcements have arrived.

Richmond, August 12.

MOVEMENTS OF THE ENEMY.

We understand that a letter has been received from General Hungerford, on the 8th instant which states that the enemy landed in Northumberland county on the preceding day, burnt a number of houses, wheat and oat stacks, committed other wanton depredations on private property, and retired in their usual dastardly manner upon the approach of our troops. There has been several skirmishes, it appears without any loss on our side.

The reinforcement which passed up the bay as stated in Col. Gayle's letter of the 9th instant, has joined the squadron off Northumberland making a force of 7 ships, 2 brigs and an unusual number of tenders.

Albany, August 4.

OUR ONTARIO FLEET CERTAINLY SAILED.

The western mail of last evening furnished us with the two following letters, one from Sackett's Harbor and the other from Utica.

TO THE EDITOR.

Sackett's Harbor, August 1.

Sir—I have at length the gratification to announce to you the departure of the fleet. Commodore Chauncey, having recovered a sufficient degree of health to resume his duty, was conveyed on board, & with all the force under his command, took his leave of the harbor early this morning. The spectacle, sir, was truly grand and beautiful. To see a fleet, consisting of ten sail in all on an inland lake, some hundred miles from the deep—sailing majestically down a bay surrounded with the most picturesque scenery—and proudly advancing to meet a hostile and unconquered foe of equal, if not superior,

A large and convenient Dwelling house, Store house and plantation, belonging to the estate of Capt. John Billups deceased, situated on the main road from Kingston to Athens, ten miles from the former and six miles from the latter place.
The situation possesses advantages equalled by few and excelled by none in the upper country. The dwelling house, sixty by twenty feet, two stories high, four rooms on the first floor, and two above with a passage ten feet wide—a convenient dry Cellar for the whole house. The store house is calculated for the reception of goods sufficiently large to accommodate a small family.

The plantation contains about three hundred acres of cleared land, a considerable portion of it fresh land, and in an excellent state of repair.

Immediate possession would be given, of the Store and Dwelling house, and of the plantation at the end of the present crop-period, the store-house would be rented separately, and the whole would be repossessed one or several years.

Persons desirous to rent will apply to the property not be rented by private contract, before the expiration of the year,

it can be rented at public outcry.

distresses of Revolutions. This principle may have led them to declare against the Emperor Napoleon, on the first news of his landing, and when only viewed him as a rival, and certain success, attempting a throne, possessed by another; when they might have thought, that a struggle, in which the parties were doubtful might disturb the general peace, and again plunge France and Europe into revolutionary troubles and misfortunes. But the Emperor is now in full and undisputed possession.—It is in disputing this possession—in supporting Louis 18th (who has become a pretender) that these troubles and misfortunes will be brought back.

2. The French nation is not invaded a way to ask or even accept the assistance of the allies; not a gun has been fired, nor a drop of blood shed; resistance has not been attempted. The Bourbons and their followers, found themselves too few to adopt a single measure of defence or precaution. They have fallen, because they were without support; and the edifice of their ephemeral government has neither basis nor foundation. The Emperor has subdued nobody—he has merely re-united every body. If, when he was peaceably seated on the throne, 6, 8, or 10 years ago, he had wished to travel from Paris to Cannes, he could not have travelled more favourably or rapidly.

The assistance which the powers offer to the French nation, is of no more consequence to her than it is to the King of France. There is no King of France except it, and the French nation does not want it. The pretended assistance will be an attack. These offers of assistance will be a declaration of war against the whole nation; a declaration which will recall to the nations of Europe the Crusade of 1792, and be followed with the same result.

3. The powers are equally deceived supposing the public peace is threatened and their interference necessary to restore it. There are no symptoms of tumult or civil war in any quarter: the Princes of the House of Bourbon are convinced of it. The Duke of Bourbons has left La Vendee and the Duke of Angoulême fled from Bordeaux. The ancient dynasty has discovered in every part of France, their inability to defend as well as impossibility to restore it. What would be the nature of foreign interference among a nation perfectly united?—a voluntary and unprovoked aggression; an interference which would destroy the tranquillity that now exists. The subjects of those powers, still afflicted with 20 years war would not be deceived. They would see the object was to set Europe once more in flames for a single family, who, when restored to

New-York, August 30.

LATE FROM ENGLAND.

The fast sailing ship Governor Strong, capt. Scott, arrived at this port yesterday afternoon, in 29 days from Liverpool, which port she left on the 29th of July. Papers to the 28th July have been received. Their contents are interesting.

A Brussels paper of the 12th of July mentions, that "when the propositions of the French Provisional Government were read in the Council of the Sovereigns, on coming to the article respecting Napoleon's abdication in favor of Napoleon II, the Emperor of Austria hastened to say, 'That concerns me: I recognize no Napoleon II—let us go forward!'"

The accounts from England affirm, that permanent garrisons of foreign troops are to be kept in the principal fortresses of France.

In an inequent letter from Fouché to Louis XVIII. he conjures him "to believe that the French people, attach at present as much in portance to their liberty as to their lives," &c. and urges him to make concessions before they be extorted from him by calamitous events.

The Dublin Post reproduces the duplicity of the allies, who declared at Vienna, that they only made war on Bonaparte, and meant not to impose a ruler on France; but under the walls of Paris, their generals inform the deputies of the provisional government, "that all the sovereigns had engaged to replace Louis XVIII. on the throne of France."

The duke of Otranto, who proved treacherous to Bonaparte, is said to have accepted an office temporarily under Louis, on condition that the King should observe the moderate course he has promised, and of which he (Fouché) set an example in his own conduct.

The Bonaparte Family.—Joseph Bonaparte (it is reported) is to be sent to Russia, Jerome to Prussia, Lucien to England, Louis to Austria, madame I scitia and Cardinal Fesch to Rome, Bl. Hortense to Switzerland.

The following is the answer which the deputies of the provisional government received from the allied cabinet.

"Haguenau, July 4.

"The three powers regard as an essential condition of peace and durable tranquility, that Napoleon-Bonaparte shall be put out of a state to trouble, by any chance, the repose of France and of Europe: and after the events which oc-

signed himself Lord High Admiral of Tripoli. His squadron was blockaded in Gibraltar by the United States frigate Philadelphia, in 1791.

New-York, September 4.
Bonaparte in London.—Capt. Cole, of the ship Savannah, who arrived here yesterday in 40 days from Havre-de-Grace, informs us, that on the 31 of August, he was boarded in the English Channel by a British frigate only two hours out from Plymouth; and that the commander of the frigate stated, that BONAPARTE and one of his principal generals had been taken from the Bellerophon and sent to London. He added that he himself saw them on their way thither, under a very strong military escort. Most probably, they will be confined in the Tower, until a final decision shall be formed as to their ultimate destination.

Capt. Cole is the bearer of dispatches, from our Consul at Paris to the Secretary of State, and from Louis 18th to the French Minister in this Country.

The frigate UNITED STATES, Commodore Shaw; the schr. Hornet, Lieutenant Page; and the store ship Alert, Lt. Stewart, sailed from Boston on Saturday last, bound to the Mediterranean.

Paris papers to the 21st of July have been received at New-York, but no extracts from them have reached us. Paris was quiet at that time.—Nat. Int.

Mississ., August 9.—By an arrival from New-Orleans we learn that the pirates of Barataria are increasing in boldness as in numbers, and are committing depredations on all vessels that unfortunately fall in their way, regardless of the flag of any nation. The Spaniards have however hitherto suffered most from these daring Freebooters.—The privateers of Carthage have been the equally disposed to prey upon the commerce of all nations, although pretending to act only against the subjects of Spain; & they are reported, from Havana, to be very annoying in that neighbourhood and in the Gulf passage.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.
WHEREAS information has been received, that sundry persons, citizens of the United States, or residents within the same, and especially within the state of Louisiana, are conspiring together, to begin and set on foot, provide and prepare, the means for a military expedition or enterprise against the dominions of Spain, with which the United States are happily at peace; that for this purpose they are collecting arms, military stores, provisions, vessels, and other means; are deceiving and seducing honest and well meaning citizens to engage in their unlawful enterprises; are organizing, offi-

signed himself Lord High Admiral of Tripoli. His squadron was blockaded in Gibraltar by the United States frigate Philadelphia, in 1791.

New-York, Sept. 5.
Fire.—Last night at 11 o'clock, a alarm of fire sounded through our streets. It broke out in a stable in Mott, next to the corner of Pell-street, which was occupied by Benjamin Diphrow. It then communicated to Robert Nibb's dwelling house and store, on the corner of Mott and Pell streets, thence to several small buildings on Pell street. The fire at this time presented an alarming appearance; the wind was high, and very little water near at hand. In half an hour from the commencement of the fire, the Zion Episcopal Church, was in flames. This lofty pile, on the falling in of the roof, emitted such a quantity of burning cinders that the surrounding neighborhood was in the almost danger of taking fire. From the Church it extended on both sides of Mott street to within a few doors of Chatham street; those dwellings on the East side of Mott, from Pell to Chatham streets, with one exception, were entirely destroyed.

The number of dwelling houses destroyed is twenty-nine.

Liverpool, July 23.
American Manufacturers.—One consequence of the late war with America has been, that the Americans can now make the cloth which they used to be wholly supplied with from this country. Mr. Cobbet, in his Register of Saturday, states, that the republican citizens of Albany have sent him a present of a suit of clothes, intended, they say, as a tribute of respect for the able, independent, and masterly manner in which he has edited his Register. Mr. Cobbet adds, that the broad-cloth is as fine and as beautiful as any in the world.

RALEIGH (N.C.) August 23.
Congressional Election.—The following may be considered as a current return of Members of Congress from this state: Win. H. Murrell, Joseph H. Bryan, James W. Clarke, William G. Goston, N. Moran, Wm. R. King, J. Culpepper, H. Sanford, Bartlett Vanvey, Wm. C. Love, Daniel Forney, Israel Pickens, Lewis Williams.

The political complexion of our representation, it is believed, differs from our last in one instance only, i. e. that Wm. C. Love, a republican, is elected in the place of Joseph Pearson, a federalist. There are four other changes of men, but the politics it is presumed will be the same.

September 1.
Tennessee.—The representation from this state, in congress, will be exclusively democratic. Col Joseph M. Minn is chosen governor, for which appointment there were five candidates.

We understand that Mr. Gallatin declines accepting his appointment as Minister to France.—Rail. Pol.

This shows James Barrow as "guardian of the orphans of Moses Barrow", and paying tax for them on land the "orphans" owned in Washington County, Ga. for the year 1813 plus tax for 7 slaves they owned. - The "orphans" of Moses Barrow were - Joseph B. 22 Jan. 1792 - William B. 15 Oct. 1795 and his twin sister Mary Drew B. 15 Oct. 1795 - Mildredge Smith B. 30 Aug. 1799 - James B. 25 Dec. 1801 just three days pryor to his fathers' death. --- Moses and James were sons of Elizabeth Atkinson and Thomas Barrow Jr. and had a brother named Jacob and a $\frac{1}{2}$ sister named Sally. --- As of April 1988 I do not know when the above named James Barrow was named "guardian" of his brother Moses' children.

Moses died in 1801 - Land still held in 1813.

This shows James Barrow as "guardian for the orphans of Moses Barrow". He paid tax on 460 3/4 acres of land in Washington County, Ga., and 7 slaves, that belonged to the deceased Moses Barrow's children. (as of May 9, 1986, the brothers or sisters of our Rev. James Barrow is not known to me.).

The three sons of Elizabeth Atkinson and Thomas Barrow Jr. - Moses, Jacob, James, all probably came to Georgia after the revolutionary war. James, born 31 Jan. 1757, was the youngest of the three. (the ages of the other two or their sister Sally is not known to me as of 9 May 1986.)

James was in the revolutionary war and was one of those who remained through the winter at Valley Forge, Pa. in 1777-1778, about 27 miles west of Philadelphia, with Gen. George Washington's Continental Army. There the Army of about 11,000 endured several months of bitter suffering, living in crude log huts that they had built themselves. They had little food and hardly enough clothing to protect themselves from the cold. On 23 Dec. 1777 Washington wrote: "We have this day no less than 2,873 men in camp unfit for duty because they are barefooted and otherwise naked". More than 3,000 soldiers died during this period. James came to Georgia in Nov. 1789 and in 1792 purchased 1,500 acres of land on bark camp creek in Burke, now Screven, County. He later moved to Hancock county, Ga. and then to Baldwin County, Ga. in 1802, where he bought a large plantation, living there until he died in 1827. His will, dated 20 March 1827 & probated 10 March 1828 names Jacob Barrow as executor. (it is safe to assume that this is his brother,) so we know that the three Barrow brothers were in Ga. Moses is believed to have died in Washington, County, Ga. in 1801, the same year that his son, our Rev. James Barrow, was born, 25 Dec. 1801. Our Rev. James's uncle, James Barrow, owned 2,745 acres of land in Ga. counties at this time and is believed to have raised our James to manhood although his wife, Nancy, died in 1814. She left a will dated 16, Nov. 1812 and probated 7 March 1814. He later married Patience Crenshaw. (HMC) (As of 9 May 1986, have no confirmation of where our Moses died in Washington county, Ga. or where he is burried nor have I found what became of Jacob or their sister Sally. (HMC)

TAX LIST
1813

Baldwin County was made from original territory 1803; from original territory 1806; from Hancock 1807; from Washington 1807, 1812, 1826; from Wilkinson 1807, 1872. Included part set off to Jones County 1807; part to Morgan 1807; part to Putnam 1807; part to Randolph (now Jasper) 1807. The County Seat is Milledgeville, Ga.

This 1813 Tax List - the first available - has added significance because of the loss of Georgia's census for 1790, 1800, 1810 and the fact that the deeds for Baldwin County prior to the Civil War have been lost.

Taxes were paid on land in Baldwin County unless otherwise noted and when land was in Baldwin and another county, only the letter "B" is used to denote Baldwin County.

Dear Cousin Fannie

I have so often wondered what had become of - you - I knew you when Cousin Fannie was living, you was very small then I branched in Madison at Fess Forts and went to the Methodist College there - and would go on and spend the night occasionally with Cousin Cy - I thought so much of him and Cousin Fannie when I received your letter I could not imagine who it was until Bro George wrote me and enclosed your letter to him then I knew -

Our grandma - and your great Grand Ma was a Miss Powell - before she married Moses Barrow - he died then she married Charlie Thompson and had four children - by him - I think there was only three Barrow children and I can't remember what Cousin Cy's father was named there was Jim and Jacob and Cousin Cy's father Grandma died and was buried in Walton Co - The grave is covered over with brick and no name or anything on it - there was very few tombstones then - The Barrows was a highly respected family they were related to old man Dave Barrow

Athens he had six hundred negroes when the war ended - he is dead but his son Hon. Pope Barrow is a very prominent man there now - Miss Mat Harris owns Grandpas old place that he was living on when he sold and moved to Louisiana - That was before I could remember - but she must have been grown and she was very intimate with the family
I think if you would write to her or Pope Barrow of Athens they could give you more information than any body - Miss Mat Harris delighted to have you come Dr Stanton's health is not good at all and I have rheumatism in my shoulder and makes me nervous

 so I can hardly write I would like so much to see you and talk over old times Madison has changed so you would hardly know so many of the old people are dead and moved away and it has filled up with country people - not the same class of people what ever become of Jack?
 he was a bright boy - and a good boy - you live so near the line of Florida guess you have plenty of fresh fish we have a neighbor that has just back from down there says there is plenty of game it is sickly - there is always some drawbacks to every thing that is good - hoping you will make us a visit this summer and I will learn more about you all

Brother of Rev. James

Captain Charles Barrow was the son of Jacob Barrow whose line was: Moses Barrow; Thomas Barrow, JR; Thomas Barrow, SR; Thomas Barrow (1) and [possibly John Barrow].

Jacob was the older brother of (Rev) James Barrow, my great-great grandfather.

Jacob was a successful business man in Milledgeville including being the post master. For some reason, he moved to Columbus and owned a hotel near the steam boat landing in the main part of town. He owned quite a bit of valuable property. He died in 1854 and we believe that he is buried in Columbus but we can find no record of such. There are no copies of 1854 Columbus newspapers in the Columbus library.

He had several children including Charles. We found two articles on Charles' death in the Columbus papers. The micro film of the first article, The Columbus Inquirer is very poor quality and only about half the article is readable. The other paper's article is much easier to read but is not as long an article as the other. I have tried to put the two together to tell the story.

It is very interesting indeed.

CAPTAIN CHARLES BARROW

Captain Charles Barrow was the son of Jacob Barrow, the son of Moses Barrow, the son of Thomas Barrow, JR; Thomas Barrow, SR; Thomas Barrow(1); [John Barrow ?].

Moses Barrow died on December 28, 1801 at his home near Keg Creek and the village Deep Step in Washington County, GA leaving his wife Martha [Smith ?] Barrow and children: Jacob (1792), twins William and Mary Drew (1795), Mildridge Smith (1799) and my great-great grandfather, (Rev) James Barrow (Dec. 25, 1801). James ("Jimmy") was only three days old when his father, Moses died and his older brother Jacob was nine.

Martha soon married a Mr. Charles Thompson and the children, other than Jacob, went to live with their mother and step-father near High Shoals, Ocoee County, GA. Jacob lived with his wealthy uncle, brother of Moses, James Barrow of Milledgeville, Baldwin County, GA. Both Moses and brother James were Revolutionary War veterans from North Carolina. James gave Jacob the best education possible and treated him as his own son.

Martha died in 1812 and her Barrow children went to live with their uncle James. Jacob was then 19 years old and as soon as he became of legal age he became the guardian of the younger children. Jacob drew land in the 1826 land lottery for "Orphans of Moses Barrow, Revolutionary War Veteran." James moved to one of the Carroll County, GA lands that the orphans drew in the lottery in late 1830s and became a Baptist preacher.

Jacob was a very successful business man in Milledgeville including becoming Post Master. For some reason he later moved to Columbus, GA and owned a hotel and considerable other properties near the steamboat landing in the main part of town. Many of the boat captains were guest of the hotel. He had several children including son Charles. Jacob died in Columbus in 1854 and is evidently buried there although we can find no record of this. There are no copies of 1854 Columbus papers available in the Columbus libraries.

Charles became a captain on the Columbus Police force. He was killed while in the line of duty on Christmas night, 1871. The microfilm from one of the Columbus papers, The Columbus Enquirer, a weekly paper is in very poor condition and difficult to read the entire article. The other paper, a daily, (unfortunately I have misplaced the name of it) is much better to read but is a much condensed story. We have done our best to combine the two articles in an effort to cover as much of the tragedy as we can. The condensed article follows:

"HOMECIDES MONDAY NIGHT—There were two men killed in Columbus at __? Monday night, and a third was so badly if not mortally wounded ? a record of which as public journalist we very much regret being called upon to make.

The first of these unpleasant ? occurred between the hour of 10 and 11 o'clock, Monday night, in which policeman Charlie Barrow, which in the discharge of his official duties received his death at the hands of George Layfield. A young man who about a week ago arrived in the city from St. Louis. The facts of the case as well as we can gather them are briefly these: Young Layfield while under the influence of liquor had been guilty of improper language and threats at the confectionary store of L G. Strupper. Mr. Strupper had ordered him away and it is said that Layfield threatened the life of Mr. Strupper. The later gave a signal and poor policeman Barrow and his partner, McMichael took Layfield in custody. Policeman Barrow told him [Layfield] that he did it unwillingly and would use his exertions to turn him loose. They were proceeding with him to the guard house and just as they had reached the " (this is all that we could read of the Columbus Enquirer article. We continue filling in with the article from the daily paper.)

"Just as they reached his brother's bakery Mr. Layfield attempted to enter. Barrow caught him. Layfield drew his pistol and fired four times. Barrow had caught the weapon in his hands endeavoring to take it away. One ball struck him in the forehead, glanced and entered the top of the skull; another his mouth and passed through the base of the brain. Barrow was carried to his home and died several hours after. He was buried last afternoon [In the old Columbus cemetery on Rose Hill] the regular police force acting as pall-bearers. He was a good and reliable officer. For awhile he was a member of the Confederate army.

Layfield escaped to Alabama. Policemen McEachen and Foran arrested him there. When taken he did not know Barrow was dead.

The Coroner's Jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death from effects of shots from a pistol in the hands of George Layfield. The shooting occurred at 10½ o'clock Monday night."

We do not know how Layfield was punished but my son, Lew Barrow a lawyer in Columbus will try to check this out. I had been told that Charles Barrow was a Captain on a river boat but had doubted this and had always felt that he was a Police Captain.
