IN MEMORIAM

MRS. J. W. BARROW

Ellen Lovvorn Barrow was born at Newell, Alabama, September 2nd, 1868. Died at her home in Bowdon, Dec. 29, 1944, age seventy-seven years, three months and twenty-seven days. She had lived in this community for almost seventy years. She attended school in Bowdon, but at the age of seventeen she gave up her education to keep house for a brother whose wife had died. Thus, early in life she began practicing that unselfish nature of hers in which she so freely gave herself and her talents to those she loved.

She accepted Jesus Christ, and joined the Baptist Church at the age of fifteen. She was always an active member. From that time until her death, she identified herself with most of its organizations and was the only charter member of the W. M. S. She served as treasurer of this organization for forty years. Her constant prayer was that sinners might be saved. She was consistently missionary minded. Miss Lillie Echols attributes her call as a missionary to China to the teachings of Mrs. Barrow. Many children in the Orphans' Home were benefited by her kindness and generosity. She taught Sunday School for almost fifty years, and was for many years the church organist. "We can imagine what a beautiful golden harp the angels gave her as she entered the pearly gates."

Her face radiated Christianity, her language and her courage would always tell that she was on the Lord's side.

In the face of tremendous difficulties and disappointments she went forward with that winsome personality of hers, seeking always to advance Christ's Kingdom.

She was a Christian mother, she loved her family devotedly, but her love did not stop with her own. She recognized that real motherhood extended as wide as human need and she became a mother to all.

She will be missed by all, especially in this community where she lived and served so long. Her life will live on, in the life of her loved ones and in the many millions of others.

"Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord,
Beautiful calm when the course is run,
Beautiful twilight at set of sun,
Beautiful death with a life well done."

Be it resolved:

First: We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family, and pray God's blessing on them.

Second: We want to humble ourselves to God's will, feeling that our loss is Heaven's gain.

Third: A copy of these resolutions be spread upon our church minutes, one to The Christian Index of which Mrs. Barrow was never without.

Respectfully submitted: Mr. Q. P. Roop, Mrs. J. B. Morris, Mrs. Tr. Cook.

Numerous Relatives And Friends Mourn Passing of Gracious And Kindly Citizen

(By Mrs. H. M. Bird)

The entire town and community was shocked Saturday night at the news that Mrs. J. W. Barrow, beloved mother and citizen had died suddenly at her home. Sincere grief was felt by every person in the town, for here is where Mrs. Barrow has spent her long and useful life. From early girlhood to the time when there were about her constantly her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was as much a part of Bowdon as Bowdon was a part of her.

In sacred lore, we have heard, when their hours of study were over, and the wise men left the halls of the Academy, they departed from one another with the following quaint and beautiful blessing—"Mayest thou behold thy world during thy lifetime, but may thine end be in Life Eternal, and thy hopes, may they endure through all generations."

I can think of no more seemly benediction, or one more applicable as I think of the departure from this earth of the beloved Ellen Lovvorn Barrow, who not only beheld, but was a most vital part of her world in this life, and whose end is indeed in Life Eternal. None could doubt her hopes will live throughout all generations.

You may shatter the vase, do with it as you will,
But the scent of the rose will linger about it still,
As night follows day, so will her good works follow her,
Even in her father's house, where she was carefully prepared for the important places she was to fill in later life, she was the ever dutiful, devoted daughter, and when the day came for her to take up the responsibilities of her own home, there was added joy in the extended opportunity for the tender, loving service of wife and motherhood. Here she found expressions for all the tenderness and charms she so abundantly possessed.

But the loyal devotion to her life companion, and the anxious, sleepless nights of tireless mother did not take from her a deep sense of responsibility to her Master and her community. The work of her Heavenly Father was very dear to her, and the many home ties—even illness, which at times would overtake the tired body did not keep her away from His house, nor ministering to His children. Countless the times suffering humanity has felt the cool, capable hand soothe the fevered brow, the cup of cold water held to the parched lips and more. Many times a fervent prayer was made to the Great Physician, in whom she had implicit faith, for relief from pain and a restoration of health.

As her days lengthened into years, that passed all too swiftly, this devoted mother was privileged to see in those about her, especially those of her own household, her ideals remain young and steadfast. Surely this knowledge did compensate for all infirmities for the earnest labors of all the tedious, untiring days of one of God's great handmaids, who counted it joy to deny herself that she might better serve and walk with her Lord. Every kindly, comforting word, every effort of human strength and mind was taxed to the utmost to show love and respect to the dear departed friends, companions, mother and grandmother. The many, many beautiful and elaborate floral offerings attested the great love and esteem in which she was held. Truly a fitting tribute to one of Bowdon's most beloved and greatest citizens. It is most appropriate that she should rest from her labors beneath the blanket of lovely flowers placed there by loving hands.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Bowdon Baptist Church, of which she was a charter member. The Rev. Gordon Ezzell, the Rev. E. Dittmore and the Rev. M. F. Roberts officiating. Burial was in the city cemetery.

In addition to her husband she is survived by 3 sons, W. O. Barrow, Cedartown, Roy Barrow, Macon, and Hugh Barrow, 2 daughters, Mrs. F. M. Rumble, Forsyth and Mrs. Harvey Jackson; two brothers, Dr. Robert Lovvorn, Richland and the Rev. W. J. Lovvorn, Carrollton; a sister, Mrs. C. C. Morris; 7 grandchildren, R. W. Barrow, Cedartown, Joe Barrow, Rockmart, Jack Barrow, Marine, San Deigo, Cal., Lt. W. O. Barrow, Jr., India, Mrs. John Barr, Jr., H. W. (Billy) Barrow, F 1-c Newport, R. I., and Davis Trammel Barrow; 6 grandchildren; R. W. Barrow, Jr. of Cedartown, Susan Ellen Barrow, Cedartown, Carey Jane Barrow, Rockmart, John H. Barr, 111, Carol Ann Barr and Virginia Ellen Barr, a niece Mrs. H. J. Reaves, and other nieces and nephews.

Newphews acting as pallbearers were: W.C. Roop, Mallalieu Johnson, A. R. Lovvorn, Lent Reaves, T. Ross Lovvorn and Dr. J. G. Morris.

tribute To J. W. Barrow Bowdon's Grand Old Man

By MRS. H. M. BIRD

Today afternoon, July the 29, Bowdon's "grand old man" for more than three quarters of a century has backed every while undertaking for the of the people, town and community around about Bowdon, the one who wraps the drapery his couch about him, and lies in to pleasant dreams", laid the earthly cares and affairs which he had been a vital part long, and went, as we all intably shall, to make his report that One whose promise long he had accepted. . . "In my ther's house there are many nsions, if it were not so I ould have told you, I go to pre- re a place for you" . . . none elieved this more than "Uncle illie" and, today we believe he enjoying the splendors of that eavenly Kingdom. . . the reward or the many good deeds which ere to become the material he, ver the long, sometime weary ears of life and service, had ent up for his mansion. We be- lieve he has entered into the joys so clearly promised those that await those who love and serve Him, the King of this wonderful Eternal Land.

All through prosperous as well as doubtful, anxious periods of Bowdon's (the town he loved so much, and was ever loyal to) history, he stood as an example of faith and loyalty—believing and proclaiming his belief in her possibilities. He loved the old college, every foot of the land, and the physical possession that made up the treasured land-mark, the educational institution to which he had sent his own children, as well as other people's children, worthy girls and boys. There are many—now men and women—who as young men and women were under-privileged, unable to go to school—who today pay him homage as their benefactor.

Of all the interests engaging his attention, there was nothing he was as devoted to and was more concerned about than his Church. Perhaps one could more appropriately say the Church. . . for it made no difference to him what Church it was. Often he has said, "I love one Church the same as another—my good friends are in both," and he proved it by his attending and supporting the local churches. No one was more encouraging to those who were endeavoring to serve in any capacity.

the large congregation attested the love and affection of a host of friends and relatives. Interment was in the City Cemetery with the Bailey Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. C. C. (Aunt Rebecca) Morris, Bowdon's Grand Old Lady. . . Mr. John W. (Uncle Willie) Barrow, Bowdon's Grand Old Man. . . Brother and Sister-in-law.

Having been members of the same pioneer families—brother and sister-in-law, down through their long, useful lives spent practically every day of them in Bowdon. . . their forefathers had such a vital part in developing, it is fitting that these—two of the town's best beloved most useful citizens, their lives so closely interwoven that even the common experiences of the two families could not affect them separately—be eulogized together. . . The beloved "Miss Ellen" Uncle Willie adored beyond expression, was Aunt Rebecca's sister. . . the families throughout the years had lived almost as one. Their children grew up together. . . as the years passed developing into "chips off the old block," to carry on largely where their distinguished parents left off—in active service. . . but never, one must say, did they as long as they lived, have to assume responsibility for their elders' enthusiasm and interest. . . this they retained and exercised as long as they lived.

Death Claims J. W. Barrow

Funeral services for John Barrow, pioneer Bowdon citizen, were held Thursday morning at the Bowdon Baptist Church. The pastor, the Rev. Gordon Ezzell, officiated, paying tribute to Mr. Barrow's "useful and cheerful" life. He was assisted by the Rev. W. H. Norris and Bill Smitha of Austell.

Mr. Barrow had been sick since Father's Day, having been taken ill at services at the church here, where he rarely ever missed attending Sunday School or church. He was 85 years of age.

He was before his retirement engaged in the hardware business in Bowdon for over 50 years. He belonged to the Bowdon Masonic Lodge and received his 50 year pin last year.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. F. M. Rumble of Forsyth and Mrs. Harvey Jackson of Bowdon, two sons, Roy Barrow of Macon and Otis Barrow of Cedartown, 7 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

A fuller account of Mr. Barrow's life will be given next week.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by Bowdon Lodge that a copy of this resolution be placed on the records of Bowdon Lodge as a permanent record and a copy be furnished the Bowdon Bulletin for publication.

John W. Barrow Dies at Bowdon

Special to The Atlanta Journal
BOWDON, Ga., July 30—John W. Barrow, 85, retired hardware and church leader, died here Sunday.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday at the Bowdon Baptist Church with the Rev. Gordon Ezzell, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Barrow was an honorary deacon of the church which he had joined when 12 years of age. He had been a merchant in Bowdon for more than 50 years prior to his retirement. He was a Mason and received his 50 year pin recently.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Harvey Jackson, Bowdon, and Mrs. F. M. Rumble, Forsyth; two sons, Ray, Macon; Otis Barrow, Cedartown; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

city that was worthy of support. He always said, "the best we have had yet." He always said, "we have the best preachers in the country." Everything undertaken was the best of its kind. How we need more like him! But who will take his place—furnishing the words of encouragement?

Thinking of his love for the Church, one recalls his interest in the revival meetings. . . especially the early spring revival of this year—held in his own church. He loved singing, and was a member of the choir for more than fifty years—maybe seventy-five. We recall the tenderness and evident affection with which he was treated by the younger members of the choir and church. . . we saw kindly arms placed around his shoulders as he was provided a seat. . . what a comfort and consolation that must be to those who dealt so gently, so kindly, with him! We recall, it was in the choir, the opening night of the summer revival of his Church he was stricken. He told us this was the first revival he had missed in seventy-five years. Very few could make this statement, would you think?

Surviving "Uncle Willie" are two daughters, Mrs. F. M. Rumble, Forsyth, Mrs. H. L. Jackson, Bowdon; two sons, W. O. Barrow of Cedartown and Roy of Macon. Grandchildren and great grandchildren also survive.

Before his death he lived in the old home within a stone's throw of where he was born. . . he lived with his son, Hugh W., who preceded him in death by several months, and Mrs. Barrow, with whom he continued to live, and who tenderly ministered to him throughout his illness and death.

This fine family, beloved by all of us, has our deepest sympathy. The funeral was held in the Bowdon Baptist Church, the Rev. Gordon Ezzell, pastor, in charge, assisted by Rev. W. H. Norris, pastor Bowdon Methodist Church, and Rev. W. O. Smith of Austell. The exquisite floral offerings and

Thus their earthly life's book is closed. . . no more will they be the constant comforter and counselor of the sick, the bereaved, those struggling with any sort of grievous experience. . . but personalities who have been so much a part of the very warp and woof of a place, will never die—neither will the memory of their countless charitable deeds "just fade away." . . but they will live on to bless mankind through the efforts of their children and those who had the privilege to sit at their feet and learn of their wisdom. Truly, the lives they lived throughout their sojourn here were living examples of the truth of the words of the Master. . . "let him that would be greatest among you first let him be servant of all." These two never sought for themselves any high places, but they won them—and a glorious victory over death by their selfless service to humanity. Sunset and evening star, And one clear call for me! "Where Ignorance is Bliss it is folly to be Wise", some enlightened philosopher of the past has, rather aptly said. . . Maybe he had some life experience to a certain good minister we happened to learn about recently. . . one who was deeply lamenting while large congregations out over our fine little town were sitting back, listening to a wonderful sermon, good singing, good music—praising him for his thoughtfulness in bringing to them—right into their homes—in the cool of the evening—where they could sit back and enjoy it, such a great program. But, said the retiring, very careful preacher. . . "I take absolutely no credit for it." I did not know my preaching was going out over the air. I had no intention of imposing my

W. Barrow and Daughter In Automobile Accident

Mr. J. W. Barrow and daughter, Miss Gladys, of Bowdon, who went to Florida some time ago on a pleasure trip, were dangerously injured in Jacksonville February 5th when a big touring car in which they were sight-seeing was struck by a locomotive and wrecked. Four passengers in the car were seriously hurt, and a number of others badly bruised.

Dr. Lovvorn, of Bowdon, who was called to Jacksonville immediately after the accident, reports that Mr. Barrow's recovery is practically assured, but that the injuries sustained by Miss Gladys are very serious.

According to newspaper reports, the driver of the car was attempting to beat the train over the crossing and only reached the track, when the car was hit and demolished.

JOHN WILLIAM BARROW

John William Barrow first became a merchant in Bowdon at the age of 21.

"J. W." Barrow built 7 of the brick store buildings in the town of Bowdon.

His first store building was in partnership with S. B. Little and was next door to the bank building which stood on the north west corner of the intersection. In 2004 it would be where a part of the building occupied by the current bank now stands. Years ago I believe it was the Copeland store (with the great pop corn and parched peanuts).

He then traded his ½ share of the Victory Mills property to George McDaniel for a wooden store located where the Allen's 5 & 10 Cents store used to be.

His first brick store building was built where the J. B. Moore store used to be. It was the second brick store building in town as John Shelnutt built the first one where Witt's Electric shop is

His second brick store building was where the Rexall Drug Store was. The bank having moved to the corner where Bean's (Dobson's) Drug Store was.

His third brick store building was the building which was where the Pearl Holmes Grocery store was.

His fourth brick store building was where the Mary Holland store was.

The fifth brick store building he built was on the north side of the street and which was occupied by Warren's Barber Shop. (probably now part of the corner bank?)

The sixth brick store building was the Barrow Hardware two-story (also with a basement) and the only building in Bowdon which had an elevator.

The seventh brick store building he built was the old Place Theatre building. and the building next door - originally there were 3 buildings on this block -
He also built over 25 dwelling houses for sale or rent in Bowdon. He was a major stock holder in the Bowdon Oil Mill, the pickle factory, Bank of Bowdon and the Bowdon Railway. He served on the Board of Trustees of Bowdon College, was Chairman of the Carroll County Board of Education for a number of years, gave scholarships to Bowdon College and was a Deacon of the Bowdon Baptist Church for many years.

Unfortunately he lost his entire fortune during the depression years. He never lost faith in the people of Bowdon and always was Bowdon's biggest booster. In his very old age he drew a small "old age state pension" as he was before Social Security and kept busy trading pocket knives from his cigar box especially on "Second Tuesdays", Bowdon's trade day which brought large crowds of all types of traders to town.

Some of the above was taken from Mrs. H. M. Bird's "March of Time" article that appeared in the October 3, 1946 issue of the Bowdon Bulletin.

Hugh W. Barrow October, 2004 (Grandson of J. W. Barrow)

MARCH OF TIME

BY MRS. F. M. BOWDON

BOWDON, GEORGIA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1946

"He that would be greatest among you must first be servant of all."

A few years ago—September the 1st—exact—the Hon. John Barrow, life-long resident of Bowdon, celebrated his 80th birthday—here at home which stands on a stone's throw of the little straight up and down plank cabin where he was born—1866.

It was during the reconstruction days following "the war between the states." Hard and trying times for all true Southerners, and the Barrow family was no exception. Mr. Barrow's father, the Hon. James R. Barrow, fought in the war, and lost a leg in the battle of South Mountain in Virginia. Added to this misfortune, and due to exposure on the battle field, he contracted tuberculosis from which he died thirteen years later.

In the meantime, another sorrow had come to the young son, casting a shadow over his bewildered pathway. His young mother had died four years before his father's death, leaving him, a boy of twelve years, entirely alone.

Even at that early age, a steadfastness and determination which has made him one of the outstanding citizens and leaders of his time, was strongly evident. Nothing daunting or deterring him from carrying out the plans which were already beginning to develop in his mind and life. He went to live with his uncle, who became his guardian, until he entered Mercer University—where that same fixed purpose and indomitable spirit immediately marked him as one bound for success and leadership. Invitations to join in the active student life came thick and fast. As a member of the Phi Delta Society and Kappa A—he became one of Mercer's most popular students. After college days, he accepted his first business position with Jeter Bros. at Waco, Ga. But Bowdon was his native home—the place nearest his heart, it is time for the town of Bowdon, through the intense effort and sacrifice of such citizens as Mr. and Mrs. Barrow, was taking on new life, and a boom, including not only business, but the hand-in-hand MUSTS of every good and successful town—education, civic and cultural life—had to be provided for. Of course, this placed such people as the Barrows on double duty. Boards of education, trustees of college, deacons in the church. They were prominently and vitally at work in every phase of human activity. But the hard work and unselfish sacrifice brought rich returns and no one, thoroughly familiar would hardly deny that the days and years of their generation were the most satisfying of Bowdon's history. More time was applied, and attention given to the things man's nature requires, to bring peace and contentment. They seemed to have been Divinely guided through all of the change and progress into those channels which produce the happiest and most satisfying conditions for human living on earth. Eighty years is a long time, as time is counted, but spent with every minute filled with good deeds, and the arts of splendid achievement, there have been few hours when time would hang heavy. Even now our good neighbor and friend of the long, useful life, is quite busy bringing words of encouragement and good cheer as he greets his countless friends—and to do something to accommodate—is counted a real privilege by him.

I am sure every citizen of Bowdon joins The March of Time in extending every good wish for the continued happiness and well being of the good and great patriot. Long, long may he live and continue to enjoy his fine useful children and their success—their usefulness in their own respective places—Otis in Cedartown, Ray in Macon, Gladys in Forsyth, Hugh and Frances in Bowdon. All making such contribution to every worthy cause as to prove themselves definitely "chips" off the old block.

Uncle Willie expressed this desire and hope on his recent birthday that he might live to be a hundred years old. I am sure everyone sincerely hopes this wish will be granted, for Bowdon would not be the same Bowdon without Uncle Willie Barrow to boost and encourage everything for her best interest.

and Christmas, 1887, he returned here and married the girl of his choice, Miss Martha Ellen Lovvorn, whose ideals and fine characteristics fully matched those to which he aspired. The popular young couple set up housekeeping on a tract of land purchased from Seaborn Smith and which was originally bought from the Indians. The selection of this spot for a home was destined to become an important factor in the life and progress of Bowdon—for in that home, aside from their own fine, useful children, there have gone perhaps more splendid young men and women, helped and encouraged by Aunt Ellen and Uncle Willie, than any other place in this section. Their home was so flexible in the desire to serve—there was always room for one more. Hence, boys and girls seeking high school and college educations were never turned away, but found an ally to see them through whatever the problem. Not just a shelter, but more often the serious handicap of financial facilities and backings were the problems. I have heard it said time and again, none were ever turned away without comfort and aid. While the home was in the making, a business was also being established. First, a partnership, for six years with his friend, Joe Little, then the general mercantile business and finally specializing in hardware, the Barrow Hardware Company became one of the outstanding and best known concerns in this section—rendering a great service to the people. John William Barrow

MY DADDY was born in BOWDON GEORGIA, in a stone's throw of where he now lives, in a straight up-and-down plank cabin in the year 1866, September 5th. It was during the reconstruction days, after the war between the states.

His father, James R. Barrow, fought with the SOUTHERN ARMY, COBBS LEGION Company B: losing his leg in the battle of South Mountain in Virginia, but was returned home to live for thirteen years, when he died of tuberculosis, a disease which he contracted from exposure on the battlefield. Preceding him were his wife, Martha Holmes Barrow and a daughter, Georgia, who died when age eight, leaving an only child, JOHN WILLIAM BARROW (MY Father).

This young man, a lonely little boy, went to live with his uncle William Barrow, his guardian, where he resided until he entered Mercer University at Macon Georgia, where he belonged to the Kappa Alpha Fraternity and the Phi Delta Society.

His first position was at Waco Georgia for Jeter Brothers where he worked only a few months. At Christmas 1887 he returned to BOWDON where he married MISS MARTHA ELLEN LOVVORN, and set up housekeeping on a tract of land which had been purchased from the Indians by Seaborne Smith, who in turn sold it to G.R. Brown from whom it was purchased by James Barrow, whose Father was the Reverend JAMES BARROW, a BAPTIST Minister and an evangelist during the war, traveling on horseback throughout the barren Country. His wife a Miss Bevins, was burned to death from an open fire while parching Coffee for her family.

J.W. Barrow with his partner, Joe Little, opened up a general Merchandise business within two weeks after he was married and continued for six years, when the partnership was dissolved and "J.W. Barrow General Merchandise" was established, from which grew one of the largest in Carroll County or Western Georgia. Later he sold all the various branches and specialized in Hardware, operating the BARROW HARDWARE Company for almost fifty years. All told, he was one of the most PROGRESSIVE, influential merchants of Bowdon. He was always public spirited, and most generous, BOOSTING HIS TOWN, His Schools, and LOYAL to HIS CHURCH, in which is a beautiful window given in HONOR of him and his beloved wife. He aided MANY boys and Girls in securing an education by financing their College career. He presented, each year a medal for outstanding student and served as chairman of the County Board of education for twelve years. He was trustee of Bowdon College for many years, as well as trustee of the local High School and Grammar School. His travels include: New York City, A sojourn on Blackwells Island, Cuba, Texas and Washington D.C. He is a Mason, a Deacon, and a Democrat, a KIND and adoring Father of six children AND THE BEST DADDY WHO EVER LIVED/..... ITS BEEN NICE KNOWING YOU, OLE PAL/

Mother's Biography.....

MARTHA ELLEN LOVVORN

On September, the second, in eighteen sixty eight, a little girl was born in Randolph County, Newell Alabama.... destined to become one of the Grandest Characters who ever lived/When she was nine yeras old, she with her family, moved to Bowdon, Carroll County, Georgia, where she still resides. Her Father settled at Lovvorn's Mill where he ehgaged in Farming, Ginning, andoperated the wheat Mill, furnishing flour and meal to the surrounding country,... He was the well known and loved Col. W.D.Lovvorn, who was born at McDonough Georgia, in Henry County, but who, with his Father, James Lovvorn, moved to a farm near Lamar Alabama, on the Little Tallapeosa River,... entering land, Goverment land. Several of his brothers entered land along the River with him. His wife, Miss Basheba Traylor, presented him with a large family of Children, among whom were Edd, John, Tom, Susan Idia, Elizabeth, Martha, Wash, and William (MY GRANDFATHER who was the oldest). William, being a progressive, energetic, far-sighted young man, saw the need of an education and attended school even after he was married to Miss Sarah Burden (whose parents moved to Alabama from Elberton Georgia).... To this union were born eleven children: Tom, Nancy, Mary, Gains, Jephtha, Rebecca Robert, ELLEN (My Mother) Donie, Samuel and Henry.....

Ellen attended school at Bowdon from the time she was nine years old until she was seventeen, sacrificing the completion of her education to keep house for her brother TOM, whose wife died, an example typical of her sweet unselfish nature. The followering year she taught school at Harmaony Church, where many young people learned to love her.

On December twenty fifth, eighteen eighty seven, she was married to JOHN WILLIAM BARROW, (whose parents were James R. Barrow and Martha Holmes Barrow) her childhood sweetheart, and they established wedidence on College Street, Bowdon, in a five room cottage in which they lived for fourteen years, after which a new two story dwelling was built. To them were born six children:

OTIS, EUGEN; ROY, HUGH, GUY, GLADYS AND FRANCES. Guy having died in infancy.

Mrs Ellen Lovvorn Barrow has lead a long useful life, being kind to the needy, generous to the poor, careing for the sick in her community, and lending a helping hand to ALL with whom she came in wontact/She has been a strong supporter of the BOWDON BAPTIST CHURCH, having joined that church when she was fifteen years of age... The Rev. T.A. Higdon of Tallapeosa, baptised her in the pond near the old Judge Shellnut home. She was organist at the church when she married and taught a Sunday School Class most of the time for a period of fifty years. She is the ONLY living CHarter Member of the Missionary Society, of which she was treasury for forty years..... A WINDOW in HONOR of her, and Mr. Barrow a living tribute to their loyalty and devotion to their church, has been given by their Children for their parents Golden Wedding gift, that they might know while they are here, the love and respect and appreciation we have for them..... The results of her teachings are unestimateable: a Missionary to China, attributed her call to Mrs. Barrows training when she was her Sunday School teacher, she impressed upon her the need for Missionaries the world over. Many young people's lives, an ong whom are is Charlie King of Atlanta who as an orphan boy at Hapeville was benefited by Mama Barrows kindness and generosity.... others too numerous to mention.

In her young days when as a lovely young matron, when the matter of "making a living" was not her first interest, as was to follow in her last days, she visited various places of intrest such as Texas, California, and the Reekies, friends in Kentucky, a boat trip to Key West are among the "high lights" But in the years to follow when the depression settled down on them and all the worldly goods were taken, she ACCEPTED LIFE AS IT CAME, TOOK OVER THE "GOOD SHIP BARROW HOUSE" and sterred it SAFELY through many a bitter storm..... With all the grace and dignity of a true CAPTAIN. May she guide it ever safely, even to the HARBOR, calmly and with the precision and dignity with which she lived. HER MOTTO being THE GOLDEN RULE... HER MOTIVE "TO MAKE A HOME FOR THOSE AWAY FROM HOME".... has aided many a stranger within her gates..... Many noted celebrities have been entertained in her home: TEACHERS, Preachers, Congressman have found that she presided with a queenly GRACE/ TRULY SHE HAS GROWN OLD GRACEFULLY/

HER CHILDREN GREW UP AND CALLED HER BLESSED..

She died Dec 29 1947.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barrow Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary in Bowdon

Mr. and Mrs. John William Barrow, of Bowdon, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on Christmas Day with four generations of the family present.

Nandina, holly, mistletoe and potted plants were used throughout the lower floor of the home. The dining table was graced with the three-tiered white cake which held fifty golden candles and on which was embossed in gold the words, "Golden Anniversary."

The dinner guests, who included the children, grandchildren, and one great-grandchild, were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Barrow and W. O. Barrow, Jr., of Cedartown, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rumble, of Forsyth, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Barrow, of Macon, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jackson, of Anniston, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Barrow and children, Billy, David and Virginia Ellen, of Bowdon, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Barrow and son, R. W., Jr., of Guntersville, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barrow, of Dalton, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barrow, of Rockmart.

In contrast to the dress of today, Mrs. Barrow, the former Martha Ellen Lovvorn, recalled that she was married in a gray outfit with basque and bustle.

Having lived on the same plot of ground for fifty years, Mr. and Mrs. Barrow have contributed much to the development of Bowdon and have always taken an interested part in church, school and community activities. Mr. Barrow has been a member of the school board for the past forty years, and was chairman of the board of education for many years. For more than forty years he was one of the leading merchants of Carroll county.

The children and grandchildren, as a token of their love and appreciation, have given a memorial window in the Bowdon Baptist church as a living tribute to their parents, who have been active members of the church for many years.

Visits from their many friends and congratulations and best wishes by telegrams and long distance telephone added to the enjoyment of this happy occasion.

BARROWS OF BOWDON OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

BOWDON, Jan. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barrow, whose families were pioneers in the development of this section for more than a century, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Christmas Day amid their sons, daughters and grandchildren.

Featuring the celebration was announcement of the gift of a tribute window, to be installed in the Bowdon Baptist church in honor of their parents by sons and daughters of the couple.

X

Our beloved friends, Hon. and Mrs. J. W. Barrow, are bubbling over with happiness. Their children, God bless them, placed a Memorial Window in their honor in the Bowdon Baptist Church. An honor richly deserved, and an act on the part of the children as thoughtful and loving as was ever written in the album of time.

J. W. Barrows Mark Fiftieth Anniversary

BOWDON, Ga., Dec. 25.—Having lived on the same spot of land for the past fifty years, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barrow on Christmas Day celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a dinner given at their home, at which four generations of the family were represented.

The dinner was attended by the couple's five children, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Barrow and son, W. O., Jr., of Cedartown; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rumble, of Forsyth; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barrow, of Macon; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jackson, of Anniston, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barrow and family, of Bowdon; R. W. Barrow, Jr., of Guntersville, Ga., the only great-grandchild, was among other relatives present.

roll. Continents all chain mountains will tumble an hills wear away, but their fluence through the blood of the family-tree will live on and on. Building a great life is the mightiest task known to mortals. It takes the vision of a seer and the understanding of a prophet and the courage of a martyr to make and shape our lives according to the divine pattern. Wisdom from above is the only path of progress known to history. Give Divine Wisdom its chance and the problems of time and eternity will be solved. Ambition's stimulating task should be to give a new dignity to life, and thus become more like HIM whose thought can destroy a star or create a world. The manliest thing that a man can do is to accept God's Son.

I love my friends. Pure friendship is the fairest flower that grows in the garden of life. It is the handrail up the stairway of life.

Friendship is a chain of gold, Shaped in God's all-perfect mold; Binding closer soul to soul; Steadfast as the ages roll.

Will Barrow has more "singing enthusiasm" and more pep or get-up-and-get to the square inch than Nature ordinarily allows. Experience and determination are powerful links in the chain of life. Will has all three. In point of age, if not in service, he is the senior deacon in the Bowdon Baptist Church. While my friend is not perfect, yet he has not missed the spiritual splendors of life. Sometimes we wet more true joy of of what we cheerfully suffer than by what we nobly achieve.

"It takes a lot of all that's good, And a lot of the bended knee, To keep us safely marching on To God's eternity."

"Common people like you and me, Are builders for eternity; To each is given a chest of tools, A shapeless mass and a set of rules, And each must build ere life is flown A stumbling block or a step that stone."

Will Barrow has always been a leader in the march of progress. He still retains that vital interest in the things that make for godliness. Believe me, he will never become ancient history. He may wear out but he will not rust out. Ladies and gentlemen, true and lasting greatness lies in service rendered to HIM who died that we might live. God's richest blessings upon my long-known friend and his dear family.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrow Observe Birthday Here Last Week

J. W. Barrow Celebrates 71st Birthday; Mrs. Barrow Her 69th

By Prof. V. D. Whatley

The birth of a human being is a far greater event than the birth of an empire. The one is immortal. The other is transitory. There are birthstones for each month. These, supposedly, symbolize influences peculiar to the month of one's birth. The precious stone—Sapphire, is the birthstone of those born in September.

Birthdays are coeval with life itself. And every birthday adds something of experience and knowledge to that already accumulated. Indeed, the great and varied feats of the years are unrolled from memory's store, and temporarily re-lived. Sunshine and shadows play major roles on the checkerboard of every life. Gladness is commingled with sadness. Thus it is and thus it will be until the bugle blast from the skies proclaims that time will be no more. Birthdays are brief interludes in the loom of time. They are full of the cream of life. They are argosies filled with joy, saturated with love, carpeted with faith, garlanded with truth and glowing with hope.

Two of our near and dear friends—God bless their great souls—have just observed their birthdays. Mrs. J. W. Barrow celebrated her 69th anniversary on Tuesday, Sept. 2. And let me tell you, Nature never made a finer woman. Her faults are few, her virtues are many. J. W. Barrow observed his 71st birthday Sept. 5th. There's nothing to do but to warmly and sincerely congratulate this fine whom they have faithfully served couple so richly blessed by HIM for half a century. We hope both will live to be centenarians. Both are Christians. Both have the capacity to enjoy the finer things of life. Both have brought honor to Bowdon. Both bear witness to a Love that is boundless. The lives that they have lived are the seed that they have sown with

Roy Barrow Dies Suddenly at Macon Home.

Member of Pioneer Bowdon Family

By Mrs. H. M. Bird

The entire town and community was grief-stricken when the news reached Bowdon that Roy Barrow, former Bowdon boy, and member of the distinguished Barrow family — pioneers and builders of West Georgia for nearly a century, had passed away—for true to the tradition of this fine old family, Roy's untiring service had endeared him to all who knew him—and rarely would one know more people than did Roy, whose keen interest in his fellow-man was manifested in the best possible service he could render everyone who came his way.

Roy's death came suddenly Sunday night, August 31, at his home, shortly after returning from his place, of business—where he had gone in response to special call to an emergency situation. At about 10 o'clock he came in stating he was very tired. Removing his keys, personal papers, he laid aside his glasses and laid down across the bed. Death came almost immediately thereafter.

Roy, who was the son of the late J. W. and Mrs. Ellen Lovvorn Barrow, would have been 61 years old November 18. He was born in Bowdon, at the old Barrow homestead, Nov. 18, 1891. He attended the Bowdon schools and Georgia School of Technology. For the past thirty-five years with the Stewart Oil Co. At the time of his death he was with Hertz-Ur Self Service—a position which was less strenuous, with less responsibility. Following a major operation at Mayo's several years ago his health was much improved, but he felt the strain and stress of the long years of a very busy life, and the need for lighter tasks.

Funeral services were held at Hart's Mortuary, Macon, Tuesday morning. The plan made and agreed upon with his wife, his remains were cremated and by plane the ashes scattered by a designated friend over the city of Macon—where he had so long made his home—and a place, it was said, he loved with a passion—and a place that fully reciprocated. Everyone loved Roy, but his heart belonged to the little children, who in return knew and loved him. The mutual devotion was noticed and remarked by all who knew him.

He was a member of the Baptist Church, having joined the Bowdon Baptist early in life. He was a member of the Macon Lodge No. 5, F. & A. M., and of the Al Sihah Temple of the Shrine.

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Frances Jones, Macon, Mrs. F. M. Rumble, Forsyth; Mrs. Harvey Jackson, Bowdon; one brother, W. O. Barrow, East Lake Weir, Florida.

The beautiful array of floral offerings attested the love and esteem that was so truly and appreciatively his own.

We would extend our sincere sympathy to the sorrowing loved ones.

Barrow Held A Place All His Own in Bowdon

(By Mrs. H. M. Bird)

Countless hearts here, and elsewhere — wherever he was known — were saddened when it became known that Otis Barrow had passed away at an Atlanta hospital Tuesday, December 19, 1967. . . . Otis has been so much a part of life all of his days, until ill health slowed him down, those who had known him through the years could hardly associate him with death.

OTIS HELD A PLACE ALL HIS OWN IN BOWDON

It would be impossible for those who have come to Bowdon since the days of Otis' activities and leadership, to clearly conceive what he has meant to the town. . . one might say, the "New Bowdon" . . . the Bowdon evolving from the coming of the railroad, something the few hundred citizens making up the town had untiringly worked and sacrificed for since there was the shadow of a chance of getting a railroad.

With the final coming of the railroad began the influx of newcomers . . . people looking for promising, desirable locations. It was Otis' pleasure to introduce and present potentialities . . . the town was wide open and cordial to all giving promise of good citizenship and Otis Barrow always assured that Welcome Mat was out.

Otis was born in Bowdon December 31, 1888 . . . had he lived, he would have celebrated his 79th birthday the last day of this month, December 31, 1967. He was the son of John William and Martha Ellen Lovvorn Barrow, members of prominent, pioneer West Georgia families, cultural and educational leaders.

He joined the Bowdon Baptist Church in early life and grew up to be a leader in his church, having served as choir director for twenty years, often using members of his choir for special music at funerals and civic programs. He frequently left his business to respond to requests to direct the music on special occasions in various sections of West Georgia, and other places.

Otis received his education in the public schools of Bowdon and Bowdon College, later attending the Bagwell Business College of Atlanta. Completing his education, he returned to Bowdon to become associated with his father in the hardware business, and was bookkeeper for the Barrow Hardware Company for many years.

On December the 13, 1908, he was married to Miss Alice Walker, daughter of Josiah and Amanda Walker, prominent citizens of Carroll County and Bowdon, to whom were born four sons: R. W. Barrow of Cedartown, Georgia, Messrs. Joe, Jack and W. O. Barrow Jr., all of Rockmart, Georgia. Mrs. Barrow preceded her husband in death, January 14, 1958.

LIVED HERE MOST OF LIFE

Mr. Barrow lived in his native city most of his life, except a few years spent in Cedartown, and following his retirement he made his home at Oklawaha, Florida, before returning to Bowdon to re-establish permanent residence.

After his return to Bowdon, Mr. Barrow was married to Mrs. Nina Hagan Word, member of one of Bowdon's pioneer families, who survives, and was constantly with her husband during his lengthy illness and death.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, December 20, 1967 from the Bowdon Baptist Church, with Rev. Bert Tapley, pastor, Rev. Hoyt Johnson, and Rev. W. C. Corley officiating.

The remains were placed in state at the church from 2 p.m. until the funeral hour.

Pallbearers: Kenneth Bishop, James L. Mathis, R. T. McCoy, Roger Vincent, Clarence Akins and Lox Witt.

Besides the wife and faithful companion, survivors are four sons: R. W. Barrow, Cedartown; Joe W. Barrow, Jack Barrow and W. O. Barrow, all of Rockmart, Georgia; five grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. F. M. Rumble, Forsyth, Georgia, and Mrs. H. L. Jackson, Bowdon, Georgia.

Preceding in death were his first wife, Mrs. Alice Walker Barrow, June 14, 1958; two brothers, Hugh W. Barrow, 1950, and Robert Roy Barrow, 1952.

Interment was in the Bowdon City Cemetery with Wynn Funeral Home in charge.

Otis' life on earth is closed, but his footprints, found in many worthy places, are indelibly impressed. His work here — in his native heath — "truly was God's work." No man ever loved his hometown more — or served its people better. Surely the Master of all good workmen greeted him with the coveted, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant: . . . enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Nina, the sons, the sisters, with all the grieving family have the heartfelt sympathy of us all.

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. MALLORY RUMBLE

Gladys Barrow Rumble was born in Carroll County on June 30, 1901 to J.W. Barrow and Ellen Lovvorn Barrow. She attended Bessie Tift College and while there met Frank Mallory Rumble of Forsyth and they were married on October 17, 1922. They lost their only child at birth.

Gladys, as she was called by all who knew her, was full to overflowing with love for her husband, her family, her college and her church. She was tireless in doing for the Forsyth United Methodist Church, working in the Church School, the women's organizations and served as communion steward for many years. She also contributed of her time and talents to the U.D.C., the D.A.R., and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mallory and Gladys built a beautiful new home in 1957 and it was his pleasure to let her furnish and decorate it just as she wished down to the smallest detail and piece of bric-a-brac. The garden and large patio furnished a lovely setting for her hospitable nature to flower and furnish enjoyment to many groups.

Although Gladys and Mallory had no children of their own they loved young people and it gave them great joy to entertain Methodist youth and Tift girls. Gladys was Chairman of Student Work for many years and this proved to be a perfect channel for her love of young people.

Gladys loved her own family devotedly as shown by her having a beloved niece, Jean Barrow, live with her while she attended High School in Forsyth. Later Jean's daughter, Carol Ann Barr, stayed in their home and went to Tift College.

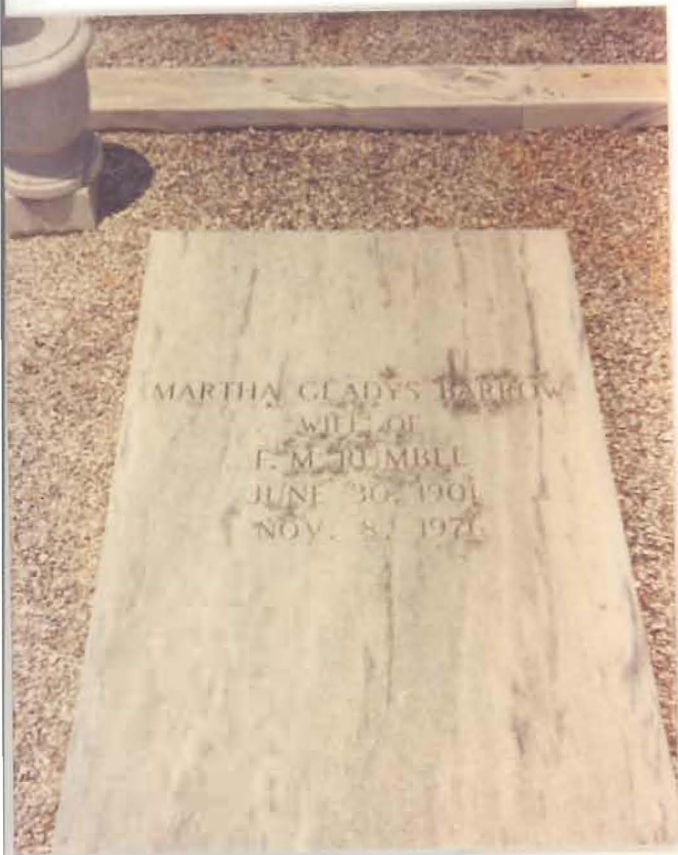

Gladys not only loved her own family but she was a one hundred percent Rumble although only by marriage. She revelled in the annual Rumble reunions and had a deep and loyal affection for every member of the clan.

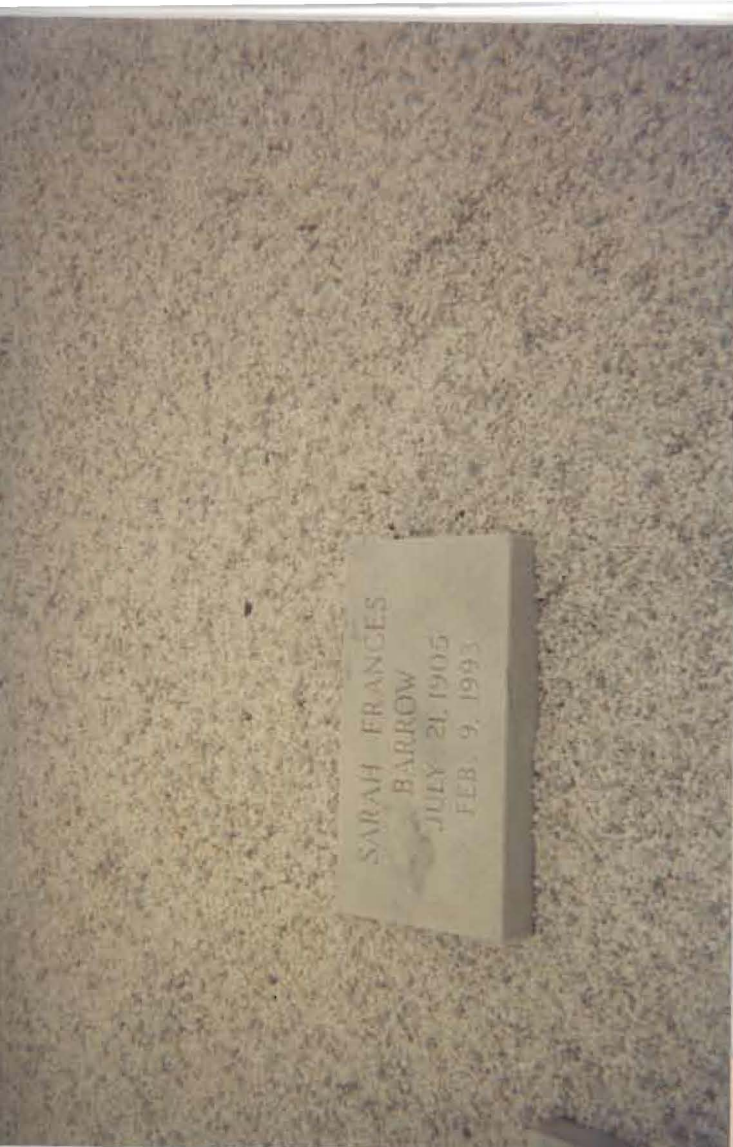

She was never a very strong person physically and during her later years she suffered long periods of illness and was frequently in the hospital. During these extended intervals of sickness her faith never wavered and she did not complain of her lot. Her husband cared for her like a baby and his devotion was characterized by infinite patience and tenderness.

In spite of many illnesses, Gladys showed her bravery by going with Mallory on long trips where the change of scenery and surroundings appeared to boost her spirits and increase her strength but always illness lurked just around the corner when they returned.

She slipped away to her Heavenly Home on November 8, 1976 and joined her parents and three brothers, Otis, Roy and Hugh who had preceded her in death. When her beloved mother died several years ago, her county weekly newspaper bore the headline, "GRAND OLD LADY OF CARROLL COUNTY PASSES AWAY." Gladys was creditable product of this mother and she will be sorely missed by many who loved her and those whom she befriended through the years.

She is survived by her husband, her sister, Mrs. Harvey Lewis Jackson, and many nieces and nephews.

Another meningitis vaccination clinic is planned for Feb. 21.

The clinic is an opportunity for those who did not get a shot during the first series of clinics and will be the only makeup clinic offered, members of the Carroll County Health Board said.

The board made the decision to offer the clinic at its regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon.

The clinic will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Carroll County Health Department, next to the jail on Newnan Road. The shots will cost $18, rather than $12, because the health department groups might still need to be targeted.

The resulting information was presented to the board by Dr. Lloyd Hofer, director of the LaGrange Health District, which includes Carroll County.

In the 2 to 5 age range, 85.65 percent were vaccinated, and 89.96 percent in the 5 to 12 age range got the shot. The lowest percentage was in the 23 to 29 age range, at 37.01 percent.

Among high schools, Bowdon had the highest percentage at 97.1, and Temple had the lowest at 46.71. Among elementary and primary schools, Temple was the highest at 95.14 percent, and Central was the lowest at 70.36.

was ever slighted by Sister Lov-vorn and like her noble husband, she contributed liberally to education. So in the language of one of old, "A bone in Israel has fallen," she has left in the hearts and minds of all who knew her the memory of all monuments, a noble
Christian life.

Therefore be it resolved, That we heartily sympathize with her children in the loss of this noble mother;
That a copy of this tribute be placed on our church book.

That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the Bowdon Intelligencer with request to publish same.

DIED
Dec. 17, 1900

AGED
63y., 10m., 10d.

One precious to our hearts has gone,
The voice we loved is stilled,
The place made vacant in our home
Can never more be filled.
Our Father in His wisdom called
The boon His love had given ;
And though on earth the body lies,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

Handwritten notes:

 Father of
 Martha Ellen Lovvorn
 Bowdon: my grandmother.

W. D. Lovvorn, farmer and miller, Bowdon, Carroll County, Georgia, son of James and Bathsheba (Traylor) Lovvorn, was born in Henry County, Georgia, in 1831. His greatgrandfather, Elijah Lovvorn, came from Ireland to this country before the Revolutionary War, and was a soldier in the patriot army, during which time he fought barefooted and on frozen ground. His grandparents, James and Hannah (Smith) Lovvorn, were born in Virginia, whence they moved to North Carolina, and afterwards to Georgia, about 1800 and settled in what is now Morgan County and from there they moved to St. Clair County, Alabama. He was a soldier in the War of 1812. William Lovvorn was born in Morgan County, Georgia, but went with his father to Alabama where his father lived the rest of his life. He was reared on the farm in Alabama and was educated in the common country schools (walking three miles, sometimes barefooted in the winter). The school that he attended was made of logs, had a dirt floor, with split log-puncheon seats. After "graduating," he taught school for a few years. He was justice of the peace for many years and in 1872 he was elected to represent Randolph County in the legislature of Alabama. He was the last Republican elected from that county. In 1878, he moved to Bowdon, Georgia, where he bought a large farm. He built and ran the "famous" Lovvorn mill, which is still in operation. He came to Bowdon primarily to educate his eleven children and eleven children of his were educated in Bowdon College.

He was more than liberal with his money where Bowdon and Bowdon College were concerned. When the people of Bowdon decided to build the new college building in 1900, it was William Lovvorn who gave the clay for the brick, $5,000 in money, all the doors and windows, and the shingles for the roof. Mrs. W. D. Lovvorn gave all the opera seats, the office equipment and furnished every room in the college with new desks. During the quarter of a century he lived in Bowdon, he gave over $100,000 for the college and the town. He was a trustee of Bowdon College from 1878 until his death.

In 1851 he borrowed fifty cents to buy his marriage license and married Miss Sara D. Burden. Eleven children were born to this union. No family has made a greater contribution to Bowdon College, Bowdon, and Carroll County than has the W. D. Lovvorn family. He was a Baptist and an ardent supporter of his church. He died on December 17, 1900, and is buried beside his wife in the Bowdon Cemetery.³⁹

His philosophy of success in life was to work hard twelve hours a day, six days a week, and fifty-two weeks during the year.⁴⁰

Colonel and Mrs. W.D. Lovvorn:
Friends of the College

When the people of Bowdon decided to erect a new college building, Colonel W.D. Lovvorn was made chairman of the building committee. He gave one third of the money required to construct the building and the clay for the bricks, all of the doors and windows and the shingles for the roof. When the building was completed, his wife, Sarah, gave the opera seats for the auditorium, the office equipment and furnished every room in the college with new desks and other furniture.

During the quarter of a century that this couple lived in Bowdon, they gave over $100,000 to the college and the town. Colonel Lovvorn served as chairman of the Board of Trustees from 1878 until his death in 1900.

Colonel William David Lovvorn moved to Bowdon in 1877, and over the next quarter of a century, he contributed over $100,000 toward the construction of the brick college building and the town of Bowdon.

Sarah Lovvorn (Mrs. W.D.) gave the seats for the auditorium, the office equipment and furniture for every room in the brick Bowdon College building constructed between 1899-1901.

BIOGRAPHY OF COL. W. D. LOVVORN

This week Mrs. Harvey Jackson had a copy of a Bowdon Intelligence, dated December 13, 1900, tabloid form. It had ads on the front page, one of them being Perryman, Jackson and Griffin.

Prices were unbelievable in the advertisements throughout, as "Children's Shoes — 5 cents each and up, Men's Shirts, 10 cents each and up, Men's Suits reduced from $2.50 to $1.75 and from $6.00 to $4.00.

Several of the classifieds on the front were from J. W. Barrow. One of them read, "Come, price our Christmas goods before you buy and we will sell you sure." J. W. Barrow.

And of the newspaper: "It is nearly Christmas, so as soon as you can, please bring us the wood pine you promised on your subscription." J. W. Yarbrough was editor then

Quite a change from then to now. Our subscribers have been coming up this week, too, but with real money. — some a couple years or more.

J. Q. Maxwell of Atlanta "Five dollars worth of issues of the Bowdon Bulletin. He writes:

"I enjoy reading the Bulletin every week. It's a very great pleasure to be reminded of my old friends by way of your excellent BOWDON BULLETIN."

But getting back to 1900. This particular issue belongs to Iverson Lovvorn of Newell, and from it we reprint the biography of Mr. Lovvorn.

EXPLANATION

Reasons for this brief biographical sketch: Col. Lovvorn has been president of the Board of Trustees of Bowdon College for twenty-three years; he has done more for Bowdon College than any other man; he redeemed the College when it was under a mortgage; from the first to the last, he spent over fourteen hundred dollars on the old college, he gave five hundred dollars on the new college building; he is the best friend the college ever had.

Col. Lovvorn's parents were James Lovvorn and Bathsheba Lovvorn. They were of Scotch Irish decent.

Col. Lovvorn was born in Henry County, Ga., February 7, 1831; moved to Randolph County, Ala in 1838; lived there till 1877, when he moved to Bowdon, Ga., where he now lives.

Col. Lovvorn, comparatively speaking, had no opportunities whatsoever. He received only three months schooling—in a log house—no floor, no desks, no windows, and split logs for seats. He went to school barefooted, wore homespun pants, a white cotton shirt, and a wool hat.

Hence, as will be seen, his advantages were very limited.

In 1852, he was married to Sarah

Delila Burden.

PUBLIC LIFE

Col. Lovvorn's public life extends through thirty-five years. He has been a leader of men for more than a third of a century.

He represented Randolph County, Ala in the Legislature for two terms. He moved to Bowdon, Ga. in the fall of 1877. He was elected president of the Board of Trustees of Bowdon College a short while after moving, which position he has since filled.

He was, for many years a director of the Carrollton Bank and a charter member of the Oil Mill and Cotton Factory of Carrollton, Ga.

He served as Commissioner of Roads and Revenue for eight years. While Col. Lovvorn has served his country in various ways, his great work has been to his Community—near his own home. He has been the central figure of Bowdon and community for nearly a quarter of a century.

He has actively and financially supported every worthy cause and enterprise in Bowdon. He has helped to build every church in Bowdon, and many others in different parts of the county. He has responded liberally to the upbuilding of the schools. Education has no stronger, better, and truer friend.

W. D. LOVVORN

W. D. Lovvorn, farmer and miller, Bowdon Carroll County, Georgia son of James and Bathsheba (Burden) Lovvorn was born in Henry County Ga. in 1831. His great-grandfather, Elijah Lovvorn came from Ireland to this country before the Revolution and was a sholdier in patriot army during which time he suffered many privations and great hardships. His grandparents, James and Hannah (Smith) Lovvorn were born in Virginia whence they moved to North Carolina and afterwards to Georgia about 1800. They settled in what now is Morgan County and subsequently moved to St. Clair County, Alabama. He was a sholdier in the War of 1812. Mr. Lovvorn's father was born in Morgan County, Ga. in 1807 and went with his father to Ala. where he died. His mother was the daughter of Migeman B. Traylor and Lidy Lang Traylor. Mr. Traylor was a sholdier in the War of 1812 and was captured and confined in Fort Pickens. He was fond of fun and jokes and on one occasion while sweeping the floor an officer passed him, and on the impulse gave him a playful swipe with the broom. The officer resented the apparent indignity and the incident came near involving him in serious trouble. He also served in the Indian War of 1836.

Mr. Lovvorn was reared on the farm in Ala. and was educated in the country schools (walking three miles sometimes barefooted in the winter), taught in a dirt floored log house with split log seats. After "graduating" he taught school himself for a few years. He was Justice of the Peace for many years and in 1872 was elected to represent Randolph County in the Alabama Legislature, the last Republican elected from that county. In 1878 he moved to Carroll County, Ga. and bought and settled the large property where he now lives and on which he has built and runs a large custom mill.

Mr. Lovvorn was married in Ala. in 1851 to Miss. Sarah D. Burden who was born in Elbert County, Ga. (15 June, 1833) daughter of Henry and Sarah (White) Burden. Her parents were born in Virginia, migrated to Ga., and settled in what now is Hart County, Ga. then afterwards moved to Ala. where he died.

Ten children were born to this union: Thomas J. , Mary, Gaines W., William J., Sarah R., Robert M., Martha Ellen, Cindonia, and Henry O..

Mr. Lovvorn and his wife are members of the Missionary Baptist Church.

He was one of the first County Commissioners, a man of large property and a most substantial and highly respected citizen.

"Memories of Georgia- Historical and Biographical illustrated" and was written probably around ~~1880~~ 1890 - 1900.

W.D. LOVVORN

HE WAS A STRONG BELIEVER IN EDUCATION AND HE MOVED FROM HIS FARM IN RANDOLPH COUNTY, ALA. TO BOWDON SO THAT HIS CHILDREN COULD ATTEND BOWDON ACADEMY AND COLLEGE. HE DONATED OVER $100,000 TO THIS INSTITUTION OVER A QUARTER CENTURY. THE LOVVORNS WERE UNIONISTS AND DID NOT OWN SLAVES.

AFTER THE WAR HE JOINED THE POPULIST PARTY (FARMER'S ALLIANCE). THESE PEOPLE BELIEVED THAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY DID NOT REPRESENT THEIR VIEWS. THE POPULISTS WANTED TO STRIKE DOWN MONOPOLIES, CUT COST OF MANUFACTURED GOODS AND BELIEVED IN CO-OPS. IN CARROLL COUNTY THEY BUILT A GUANO PLANT, GINS, A COTTON MILL FACTORY AND EVEN RAN RETAIL STORES. IN 1893 W. D. LOVVORN RAN FOR COUNTY OFFICE ON THE POPULIST PARTY. (HE HAD BEEN A STATE LEGISLATOR IN ALA.) HE CAMPAIGNED AGAINST THE RAILROADS AND BIG BUSINESS. THE POPULIST WERE MOSTLY SMALL FARMERS, MILL WORKERS, AND PEOPLE OF MODERATE ECONOMIC STATUS. THEY WERE ALSO THE LEADING PEOPLE OF THEIR COMMUNITIES. TOM WATSON BECAME THEIR LEADER.

IN 1893 W. D. LOVVORN SOLD FIFTY BALES OF COTTON TO PAY HIS TAXES BUT WAS STILL $50 SHORT.

IN 1895 THE POPULIST MERGED WITH THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. THE LOVVORNS OF BOWDON HAVE BEEN REPUBLICANS OVER THE YEARS AND AT TIMES THIS CAUSED RESENTMENT IN THE COMMUNITY.
