SPRUILL—BARROW

Beauty and simplicity marked the occasion as Miss Bonnie Jeanne Spruill became the bride of Hugh Will Barrow at six-thirty o'clock on Wednesday, the thirty-first of July at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barrow, the groom elect's parents. White Gladiolus, greenery and burning white tapers were used to form an improvised altar. The Reverend Gordon Ezzell officiated.

The bride, attended by Mrs. Roy Dobson as matron of honor, was lovely in a white wool suit with accessories of black. Her corsage was a purple throated orchid showered with tube roses.

Mr. Roy Dobson of Bowdon acted as best man. The candles were lighted by David Barrow, brother of the groom.

The young couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to Lakemont.

Mrs. Barrow is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Martin Spruill, and the sister of Mrs. Arthur Halverson of Gilman, Ia., and Darrow Spruill. She was graduated from Bowdon High School, attended West Georgia College, and was a student at Emory University Hospital, Atlanta, at the time of her marriage.

Mr. Barrow, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Barrow was graduated from Bowdon High School and served two and one half years in the United States Navy, from which he was honorably discharged recently.

The young couple will be at home to their many friends in Bowdon.
