The second Hampton (APA-115) was launched 25 August 1944 under Maritime Commission contract by Ingalls Shipbuilding Corp., Pascagoula, Mississippi; sponsored by Mrs. Harry Gilmore; and commissioned 17 February 1945, Comdr. W.H. Ferguson in command.

After completing her shakedown training out of Galveston, Hampton arrived Newport 20 March for duty as a training ship for pre-commissioning crews. She continued this vital duty until departing 7 May for Norfolk to embark troops destined for Hawaii. The transport sailed 19 May and arrived Pearl Harbor via the Panama Canal 9 June. At Hawaii Hampton embarked over 1,000 members of the 34th Construction Battalion and sailed for Guam, where she arrived 6 July 1945. After disembarking her Seabees, so vital to the success of the island campaign in the Pacific, the transport sailed to the east, arriving San Francisco 25 July.

Hampton sailed from San Francisco 13 August just prior to the surrender of Japan, and arrived Samar Island fleet carrying occupation forces to Japan, Hampton landed troops at Aomori Bay, Honshu, 25 September, and then returned to Okinawa for more occupation units. During October she carried these troops to Jinsen, Korea; Chefoo and Tsingtao, China, helping to speed occupation of these ports and stabilize the volatile China situation.

Hampton departed Tsingtao for Portland, via Okinawa and Leyte, arriving 28 October 1945. She then made two voyages to Guam as part of the "Magic Carpet" fleet, performing the giant task of bringing home the thousands of Pacific veterans. After returning to the Pacific coast from the second voyage 10 February 1946, the transport sailed for the East Coast, arriving Norfolk 7 March.

Hampton decommissioned 30 April 1946 and was returned to the Maritime Commission 1 May. In 1947 Hampton was sold to Pope and Talbot Lines and renamed P.&T. Explorer.

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY
WASHINGTON

July 6, 1946

My dear Mr. Barrow:

I have addressed this letter to reach you after all the formalities of your separation from active service are completed. I have done so because, without formality but as clearly as I know how to say it, I want the Navy's pride in you, which it is my privilege to express, to reach into your civil life and to remain with you always.

You have served in the greatest Navy in the world.

It crushed two enemy fleets at once, receiving their surrenders only four months apart.

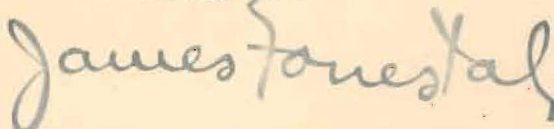

It brought our land-based airpower within bombing range of the enemy, and set our ground armies on the beachheads of final victory.

It performed the multitude of tasks necessary to support these military operations.

No other Navy at any time has done so much. For your part in these achievements you deserve to be proud as long as you live. The Nation which you served at a time of crisis will remember you with gratitude.

The best wishes of the Navy go with you into your future life. Good luck!

Sincerely yours,

HUGH W. (BILL) BARROW

Seventeen-year-old Bill joined the navy shortly after graduating from Bowdon High School in 1943. He served aboard an Attract Transport in the Pacific. The ship was built by the Ingalls Ship Yard in Pascagoula, MS. It could transport about 1,500 troops with their equipment such as trucks, their rations and supplies for a good period and the landing crafts which could transport them up onto the beach and could serve as a hospital when needed. The ship landed Seebies at Ulithi and the army at Layte and Okinawa. At the end of the war we were at Samar in the Philippines and had loaded troops, a National Guard Unit from South Georgia of the 81 st or Wild Cat Division, for some unknown destination. We all thought it might be for the invasion of Japan or for some location nearer there. We got underway immediately and landed these Georgians at Amori, the northern most point on the major Japanese island of Honshu, shortly after the surrender. As soon as these were all landed, we returned to Okinawa, where we road out a terrible typhoon, and loaded Marines and landed them at Chefoo, China. We then collected "high point" sailors and marines from Chefoo and Tsingto, China and Korea and sailed for Portland, Oregon and were the first ship to arrive there with returning men. The people there gave us a great reception. The restaurants in the city even gave us free meals. We th~n. made three fast trips to Guam bringing our men home. Finally a leisurely trip, with about half of the crew aboard, back through the Panama Canal to Norfolk where the ship was decommissioned. I was a member of the crew every day it was a commissioned naval vessel and was a Watertender 2/C in the Engineering Division with the title of "Oil King."

Hugh W. "Bill" Barrow

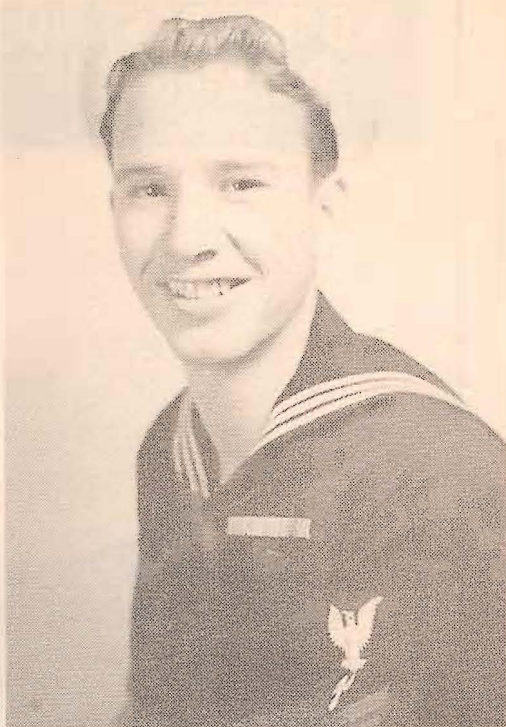

In 1943, Bill enlisted in the United States Navy when he was 17 years old and just out of Bowdon High School. He served in the Pacific aboard the USS Hampton, APA 115, as a Water Tender 2/C and as the ship's "Oil King". The Hampton was a fast troop transport which carried about 20 landing crafts (Higgins boat types) which were used to land personnel on the beaches, and, also, the ship served as a hospital for evacuating casualties. The Hampton won battle stars for The Philippine Liberation and The Okinawa campaign.

Bill served for almost three years and then four years in the Navy Reserve. Campaign medals he was awarded were: American Theater, Asiatic Campaign, Philippine Liberation, China Cruise, Occupational (Japan and Korea), WWII Victory and the Good Conduct.

Bill jokes that he went through several battles and never got to see any of the action because his battle station was below the waterline in the engine-boiler room keeping the ship running. (He was able to slip top-side occasionally to see just what was going on.)

Bill was rewarded for his service in the Navy by the U. S. Government and its people with the "G. I. Bill" that allowed him to go to college and become a chemical engineer with the DuPont Company for forty years. Thanks, America, for looking after your servicemen, especially this one!

For 4 years from 13 June 1946
I oblige and subject myself to serve during minority until
I am discharged by proper authority, and on the conditions provided by the act of Congress of March 3, 1875, as follows:

1422. That it shall be the duty of the commanding officer of any fleet, squadron, or vessel acting singly, when on service, to send to an Atlantic or to a Pacific port of the United States any person who may have occurred on either the Atlantic or Pacific Coast of the United States, in some public or other vessel, all petty officers and persons of inferior ratings desiring to go there on the expiration of their enlistment, or as soon thereafter as may be, unless, in his opinion, the detention of such persons for a longer period should be essential to the public interests, or if they may detain them, or any of them until the vessel to which they belong shall return to such Atlantic or Pacific port. All persons enlisted without the limits of the United States may be detained on the expiration of their enlistment, either in a foreign port or in a port of the United States, or they may be detained as above provided beyond the term of their enlistment; and if sent home, or detained by a commanding officer, according to the provisions of this act, shall be subject in all respects to the laws and regulations for the government of the Navy, and to an Atlantic or Pacific port and their regular discharge; and all persons so detained by such officer, or reentering to serve until the return to an Atlantic or Pacific port of the vessel to which they belong shall in no case be held in the service more than thirty days after their arrival in said port; and that all persons who shall be so detained beyond their term of enlistment, who shall after the termination of their enlistment, voluntarily reenter to serve until the return to an Atlantic or Pacific port of the vessel to which they belong and their regular discharge, shall receive for the time during which they are so detained or shall so serve beyond their original terms of enlistment, an addition of one-fourth of their former pay: Provided, that the articles shall hereafter contain the substance of this section.

I oblige myself, during such service, to comply with and be subject to such laws, regulations, and articles for the government of the United States or shall be established by the Congress of the United States or other competent authority, and to submit to treatment for the prevention of smallpox, typhoid (typhoid prophylaxis), and to such other preventive measures as may be considered necessary for the protection of the public health.

SPRUILL—BARROW

Beauty and simplicity marked the occasion as Miss Bonnie Jeanne Spruill became the bride of Hugh Will Barrow at six-thirty o'clock on Wednesday, the thirty-first of July at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barrow, the groom elect's parents. White Gladiolia, greenery and burning white tapers were used to form an improvised altar. The Reverend Gordon Ezzell officiated.

The bride, attended by Mrs. Roy Dobson as matron of honor, was lovely in a white wool suit with accessories of black. Her corsage was a purple throated orchid showered with tube roses. Mr. Roy Dobson of Bowdon acted as best man. The candles were lighted by David Barrow, brother of the groom.

The young couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to Lakemont.

Mrs. Barrow is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Marvin Spruill, and the sister of Mrs. Arthur Halverson of Gilman, Ia., and Darrow Spruill. She was graduated from Bowdon High School, attended West Georgia College, and was a student at Emory University Hospital, Atlanta, at the time of her marriage.

Mr. Barrow, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Barrow was graduated from Bowdon High School and served two and one half years in the United States Navy, from which he was honorably discharged recently.

The young couple will be at home to their many friends in Bowdon.

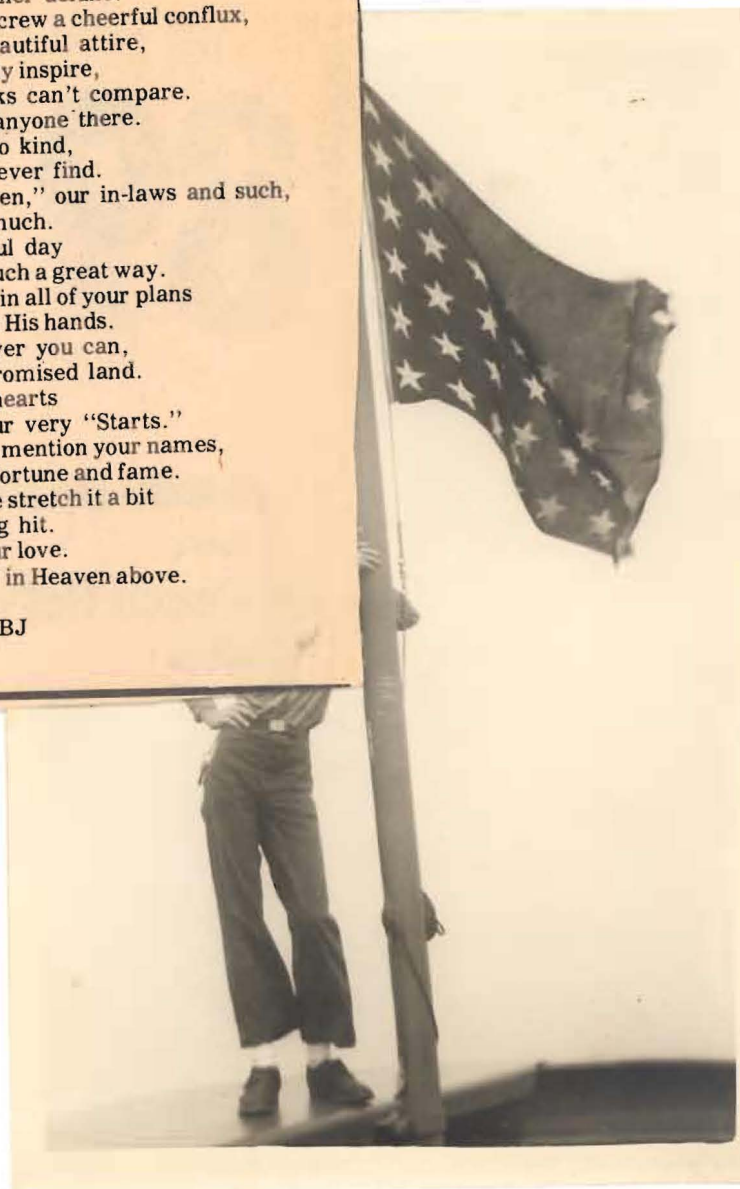

Carol Ann Barr, age 5, probably didn't welcome her new aunty by marriage, Mrs. H.W.B., as cordially as she might have, as she had always considered the groom her sweetheart. The wedding was quite a shock to this little lady who considers that her best fellow has "two-timed" her.

Her brother, J. B., III, however made up for his little sister's lack of enthusiasm when he was told that all gentlemen might kiss the bride.

An Ode To Bill And Bonnie

The day was delightful, the dinner deluxe.
The house was a dreamboat, the crew a cheerful conflux,
One auntie was there in her beautiful attire,
Just to see her so lovely could only inspire,
Another poor critter whose looks can't compare.
But who had more FUN than anyone there.
Two uncles so good and ever so kind,
The likes of which one could never find.
"Our children, our grandchildren," our in-laws and such,
All of whom we love so very much.
So thanks again for a wonderful day
And for always including us in such a great way.
May God bless you and help you in all of your plans
And keep you safe in the palm of His hands.
So come on to Bowdon whenever you can,
Before we "take off" to the promised land.
We love you all, with all our hearts
And we always have since your very "Starts."
We purr like a kitten when folks mention your names,
So we tell them quickly of your fortune and fame.
Maybe God will forgive us, if we stretch it a bit
Because, to us, you ARE a big hit.
So thank you again for all of your love.
We shall "reserve you a ticket" in Heaven above.

And we tell them quickly of your fortune and fame. Maybe God will forgive us if we stretch it a bit, because to us you are a big hit! So Thank you again for all of your love, — we will

Thurs. night

Dear Bonnie & Hugh,

I sure would like to see you sweet people tonight. Won't be long now. If things go right I will be on my way home two weeks from tonight. Boy, Oh Boy! I will want you to meet me in Atlanta so we can get home for a short while.

Got the letter today saying you were having the sofa and bookcase crated. That is O.K. If you need any money to ship them borrow it some way and I will pay it back when I get there. Hope you will have already shipped them when you get this though. Hope they will get here O.K.

If you can find a heavy wooden box that I could pack some books in to ship up here it would help. Will need some books if we have a bookcase.

Baby, I wasn't fussin' at you, I just wanted to make sure that the things were all seen about. I know you have done a wonderful job with every thing. You are a good gal, and a sweet one too.

I have just wrapped Hugh a little present and will mail it tomorrow. I sure think about my boy a lot and will sure be glad to get him here with me.

Must pay the rent on the apartment tomorrow night and will look around for some furniture bargain. Won't buy anything but I'll try a bit though. Must call some bonds too. Everything here stays open on Friday night until 9.

Every thing at the apartment is furnished except electricity. Heat, water, steam, refrigerator, etc. ^{one furnace} It is several miles from work but I already am lined up in a car pool. I think it will be O.K..

My ~~eye~~ eye is a lot better today but still hurts a lot.

Hope you get the little radio. We will sure need one.

Baby, if you get time you should wax the car good. Put plenty of wax on the chrome.

Well sugar, I will hit the sack now. Only wish you were already in it. I sure do want some lovin'.

Goodnight, sweetheart, & I love you.

Bill

Dear Bonnie Jean,

I just got to thinking what a wonderful time we were having this time last year and thought maybe you would remember also. Then too, maybe you didn't enjoy it as much as I did.

This is a beautiful Sunday afternoon out here. We are pretty close to the equator now though so it is kinda warm. Around 120° and down in the engine room it is 140° . Sure would like to get into some of that cold weather you are having back in the States.

Right now there is a cool breeze blowing, so it is not too bad.

How do you like Emory? I thought it was a beautiful place. In the spring time is when it is really pretty. Hope you like your work fine and am sure you are a wonderful nurse. I know I don't deserve it, but maybe you could write me and tell me a little about the good old place.

Are the day land sailors still there? I have quite a while to go before I get out.
I need ten more points, so you see if I had an "old lady"

I would be getting out. Maybe that would be worse than The Navy though.

We will be in Guam in about another week, load up from there and head for France. Don't expect to get any leave however, because we will only be there a short period.

Bonnie, I have a friend there in the hospital. His name is Wayne Smith. He is cripple and I think he is an X-ray technician. If you know him tell him hello for me. I had English and Math. with him there.

Hope you had a merry Xmas and I wish you a very happy 1946.

Take care of yourself and be sweet.

Bill
