

The Ancestry of Esther Blount
(1703 - ?)

Esther Blount was born 17 Mar 1703 of Chowan, NC. She married John Worley, born 1701 in VA. John was the son of Edward Worley, born c 1673, married c 1695, and died c 1724 at York Co., Charles Parish, VA, leaving a will. John's mother was Mary Worley, born c 1677. Esther was the daughter of John Blount, born 17 Oct 1670 VA, died 17 Mar 1725 Mulberry Hill, Chowan Co., NC, near Edenton on Albemarle Sound. Esther's mother was Elizabeth Davis, born 1679, died 1732-33 at Mulberry Hill with her husband. They married 11 June 1695 Henrico Co., VA, living on the land at Mulberry Hill that John's father James Blount had bequeathed to him. James had patented this land in 1684; however, it is probable that he occupied the land several years before he secured his grant. The court records show that James was in Shaftsbury or Chowan Precinct in 1670, probably coming there in 1669.

John and Elizabeth had ten children, six daughters and four sons. They are the progenitors of a large and influential family in NC, and many well-known names in the state trace to these children of John Blount. These children are:

1. Mary Blount, born 1696, married Jonathan Jacocks I. They both died @1735 at or near Scotch Hall in Bertie Co., NC.
2. Elizabeth Blount born 1697, married Dr. Samuel Pagett. They lived and died in Edenton, NC.
3. Sarah Blount, born 1699, married John Lovick, Sec. of the Colony of NC. She lived only a few years and died without children.
4. Martha Blount born 1702, married first Thomas West, who died in 1722, leaving two daughters, Martha West, who married Edward Bryan, of Bertie, and Elizabeth West, who married Col. Thomas Whitmell of Bertie Co., NC. Martha married second ---- Worsley.
5. Esther or Hester Worley (see above)
6. John Blount, born 1706, married Sarah E. Vail, daughter of Jeremiah Vail. They succeeded to the Mulberry Hill estate and lived and died there.
7. Thomas Blount, born 1708, married Elizabeth Pollock, widow of Major George Pollock, and daughter of Thomas Whitmell and his wife Elizabeth Hunter Bryan. They had two children: Whitmell Blount, who married Amelia Bryan, and was probably killed at the battle of Germantown, during the Revolutionary War, and Winnifred Blount, who married her cousin Hon. Whitmey Hill. Mrs. Elizabeth Blount married Col. William Williams of Martin County, NC, son of William Williams and his wife Elizabeth Alston, daughter of John Alston.

8. James Blount, born 1710, married ----- and had two daughters: Nancy Blount, who married Dempsey Connor, son of Dempsey Connor and Mary Pendleton, great-granddaughter of Gov. Archdale (NC), and left one daughter, Frances Clark Pollock Connor, who married first Joseph Blount III, and second William Hill; and Betsy Blount, who married Jeremiah Vail, son of Jeremiah Vail. They removed to New Hanover Co., NC.
9. Anne Blount, born 1712, married ----- Worley.
10. Joseph Blount, born 1716, died 1777, married Sarah Durant, daughter of George Durant (grandson of George Durant the elder) and Hagar Crisp, daughter of Nicholas Crisp and --- Wilkins. They left many children.

John Blount was the son of James Blount, born c 1620 of Astley, Worcestershire, England, and Ann Willis, born c 1639, of Sodington, Worcestershire, England. They married 1660, of Isle of Wight, VA. Ann was the daughter of Balthazar and Hannah ----- Willis[x]. James died 1686, Chowan Co., NC, and Ann died in Ipswich, MA. James was a Captain in the Life Guards of Charles I. His is said to be the oldest NC family. A will dated 9 Jul 1685 reads:

"Son James Blount, son Thomas Blount, two daughters Ann Slocum, and Elizabeth Hawkins, grandchildren James and Sarah Blount, children of my son Thomas and Ann Slocum, daughter of my daughter Ann Slocum, John Hawkins, son of my daughter Elizabeth Hawkins, son John Blount; wife Ann Blount sole executrix. Witnesses, John Railey, Jane Miller, William Dobson."

James and his brother Thomas Blount (grandfather of William Blount, first governor of TN) came to VA together equipped with money and a family crest. Prior to that, on 13 Sept 1655, the following came to America bound to James [Blunt] to serve in Virginia: Thomas Taylor of Lugwardine, Heref, labourer, for 6 years; Rebecca Davis of Grosmont, Monmouth, spinster, for 3 years; and Anne Morgan of Rowlstone, Heref, spinster, for 3 years.

Early the Blounts moved to Chowan Precinct in present NC in search of better and cheaper lands for their tobacco plantations. James patented a tract of land there known as Mulberry Hill, a showplace home with fresh-water springs and carefully planted orchards. He was a leader in Culpepper's Rebellion, was a burgess, a member of the governor's council, and a leading citizen.

Blount land and slaves were bought, sold, and leased to work on shares. Blount mills ground the essential corn or sliced the boards of the community for cash or barter. Blount carpenters and coopers made wagons, staves, and shingles, and Blount forges served both farmers and soldiers for profit.

A Thomas Barnard arrived in the Virginia Colony in 1654 aboard a ship owned by the Major Abraham Wood - This could have been the father of Thomas (Sr) ? -

Rev David Barnard in a letter to his nephew James Barnard (brother of our Moses) stated that "two last" arrived as early as Virginia - Thomas Barnard, my grandfather the emigrant from Britain to the northwestern was one of these - This would make "the last" the father of Thomas Sr.

In Virginia Record = "Mr. Thomas Barnard owned land property on College Lane - Could this be Wm + Mary - probably the only college in Virginia at that time - was a little of considerable status in the Colony definitely indicating that Thomas was not a (indentured) servant.

Thomas died in 1684 - His widow married George Baker -

There was a "Thomas Barnard dead at James City (Annapolis) in 1622-23. He could have had to come with the London Company whose ship arrived between 1602-1623. Don't know if this Thomas had children? He probably died in the Indian uprising of 1622? Was this our line?

His first wife was MARY by whom he had several children, only one of whom is named in his Will in 1761. Reputedly, all the other children by wife MARY predeceased their father. MARY d. after 3-1-1751 (DB 4:45 in Halifax Co., NC) when she co-signed a deed with her husband. THOMAS, JR. then m. ELIZABETH ATKINSON by whom he had 3 sons and 1 dau. He was the son of:

VII - THOMAS BARROW, SR. of Southampton Co., VA (formed from Isle of Wight in 1749) d. testate in 1763, naming his son THOMAS (JR.) whose children were to receive their father's share (See other records in these volumes). Since we know from a letter, written 9-10-1817 by Rev. DAVID BARROW of Montgomery Co., KY (a great grandson) to his cousin, JAMES BARROW in Baldwin Co., GA who entered it in his Journal, that THOMAS, SR. lived to be between 90 and 100 years old, we can then establish his birth as being between 1665 and 1670 (probably in Surry Co., VA) where his father died intestate in 1684.

Miss M. Rebecca Barrow Marries

Miss Martha Rebecca Barrow and Harvey LeRoy Griffith Jr. of Stone Mountain were united in marriage Jan. 9 during a 3 p.m. ceremony at First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Thomas Kerr officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Will Barrow. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey LeRoy Griffith of Stone Mountain.

Prior to and during the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Tish Allred, soloist, and David Donathon, organist.

Vows were exchanged before an altar centered by a large arrangement of mixed greenery and flanked on either side by spiral candelabras holding lighted tapers and draped with mixed greenery.

Family pews were designated by sprays of magnolia tied with white bows and flaked with baby's breath.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride was attired in a white satin gown with a high jeweled neckline. The front of the fitted bodice came to a point at the dropped waistline with satin buttons to the deep V in the back.

The bodice was appliqued with Alecon lace, seed pearls and irridescent. The Juliet sleeves came to a point at the fingers and featured lace, pearls and irridescent. The softly gathered floor-length satin skirt swept into a Castilian train.

A scalloped border of Alecon lace edged the hemline of the skirt and train. Insets of Alecon lace accented the front of the skirt and the train. The fingertip veil of imported silk illusion formed puffs in the back and was secured by a headpiece adorned with pearls and rhinestones.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white phaloeopsis orchids and stephanotis accented with ivy and ruscus.

Mrs. Stephen Harris, sister of the bride from Amelia Island, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Anthony Gallo, sister of the groom, and Miss Julie Slavik, both of Atlanta. Lori Barrow, niece of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid.

The attendants wore gowns of royal blue, wet-look metallic satin that featured a round neckline, fitted bodice and long, raglan sleeves. The skirts, featuring a fishtail hemline, were pleated in the lower back.

They carried arm bouquets of yellow tulips and greenery with bows made of opalescent ribbon.

The junior bridesmaid was attired in a tea-length gown of royal blue satin accented by a handmade French lace collar. She carried a white, pearlized basket of yellow tulips.

Scott Hubka of Houston, Texas performed the duties of best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Dr. Hugh Will Barrow Jr. of Spartanburg, S.C., brother of the bride; and Mr. Anthony Gallo of Atlanta.

Hugh Will Barrow III of Spartanburg, S.C.,

MRS. HARVEY GRIFFITH JR.

nephew of the bride, served as junior groomsman.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple was honored with a champagne reception at the Dalton Golf and Country Club. The food tables were connected by an arrangement of mixed fresh flowers in hues of yellow, peach and white.

An ice sculpture and white linen table covers completed the setting. The bride's table was overlaid with a white, heirloom table cover. The four-tiered wedding cake was surrounded by sprenger fern accented with phaloeopsis orchids, stephanotis and baby's breath. Sculpted flowers adorned the cake.

Mrs. Terry Britton kept the bride's book. The registry table was decorated in white linen overlaid with a white lace cover. A white basket containing yellow tulips completed the setting.

Mrs. Hugh Will Barrow Jr. of Spartanburg, S.C. assisted in serving.

On the eve of the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Griffith, parents of the groom, entertained members of the wedding party, family members and out-of-town guests with a rehearsal party at Amy's Place.

Prior to the wedding, the bride was honored with a miscellaneous shower hosted by Mrs. Barry Hodges, Mrs. William Barnwell and Mrs. William Glasscock in the Glasscock home.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Miami Beach, Fla.

If I should ever leave you
whom I love
To go along the Silent Way,
grieve not,
Nor speak of me with tears,
but laugh and talk
Of me as if I were
beside you there.
(I'd come -- I'd come,
could I but find a way!
But would not tears and grief
be barriers?)
And when you hear a song
or see a bird
I loved, please do not let
the thought of me
Be sad...For I am
loving you just as
I always have...
You were so good to me!
There are so many things
I wanted still
To do -- so many things
to say to you...
Remember that I did not fear...It was
Just leaving you
that was so hard to face...
We cannot see Beyond...
But this I know:
I loved you so -- 'twas heaven
here with you!

In Memory

If I should ever leave you
whom I love
To go along the Silent Way,
grieve not,
Nor speak of me with tears,
but laugh and talk
Of me as if I were
beside you there.
(I'd come -- I'd come,
could I but find a way!
But would not tears and grief
be barriers?)
And when you hear a song
or see a bird
I loved, please do not let
the thought of me
Be sad...For I am
loving you just as
I always have...
You were so good to me!
There are so many things
I wanted still
To do -- so many things
to say to you...
Remember that I did not fear...It was
Just leaving you
that was so hard to face...
We cannot see Beyond...
But this I know:
I loved you so -- 'twas heaven
here with you!

Packing Day

I think we are all sick of this move, but the guys are VERY professional. Had everything packed by early lunch and are now unloading. The pets don't mind the hubbub.

I had the farrier out today, and Bill the donkey has a mild case of thrush. He told me to just pick them every day and scrub them with a wire brush. I'm so proud of my babies who behaved like trainee horses, rather than colts. I found a very well-know horse breaker/trainer whom will take the horses to his ranch so he can bond. We don't have a round arena which is absolutely necessary for ground training. They got excellent remarks from the Vet who said he was impressed at how tall they are. He gave the "OK" to proceed with training.

For some reason I am not receiving new e-mail, and I am really missing Bill's notes. Please send a "testing" one to me, and if I don't get it by Mon, I will take my computer back to the shop.

I really, really, really would be so thrilled to have you come visit. I'll pay your ticket since you've paid for so many of mine. Bonnie has SUCH good taste, and I'm hoping she can look at fabric samples. I just get overwhelmed.

OH YEAH!!! We got about 3 hours of drizzle this morning. Funny how it's just my luck to get rain on moving day. Maybe if I wash my car we'll get a good shower.

Well, break time is over. I can't find words to tell you how much I love you and MISS YOU. I want to come to GA soon and will be watching for specials. 3 years ago it was about $210, now it is $650. WHEW!

I love ya'll VERY much!

P.S. I sent you a "snail mail" so please be on the lookout for it

P.S.S. Although I haven't gotten the invite, I think I'd rather come see you when we have more time together.

☺☺☺---<---< (a pretty flower for Bonnie.

Dear Bill and Bonnie,

I had a long talk with John last night, and we have worked out an arrangement for me to get out of here ASAP. It can't come soon enough. Being my age and with my smarts, I just can't stand being treated like an infant. I even have someone sit and watch me while I have a bowel movement. I know I made a horrible mistake, but I know I paid my dues by now and deserve to be treated like an adult. If I get out I will call you to let you know our plans.

I love you two!

Subject: Good morning

You will not have to live in the basement unless we make it into an apartment. We have plenty of room upstairs. You can have the front bedroom until we find something else. Mal did show up and did a great job. He is a real good handyman. Fixed the fan in the kitchen, the overhead light in the kitchen and changed all the smoke alarms and other alarms. He wanted to mow the grass but I have my regular man to do that. I am getting ready to take Bonnie to the beauty parlor and will grocery shop as it is senior day, 5% off. Hope that things go well for you tomorrow but don't be too discouraged if it is not exactly as you want it. May take a while longer. When you can get the stomach tube out and start eating. We are both fine this morning. Been out watering bad places in the front lawn. Found a snake skin in one of the shrubs. Love you, Bill

Dear Bill and Bonnie,

We had my meeting today which didn't go as well as I had hoped. According to them I am only as smart as an 11th grader which upset me. I know I'm smarter than that. John is going to try to get me transferred to a proper psychiatric facility where I can get proper help. This place is for cripples and people with physical problems. Some very sick people. I am going to continue to be optimistic and "tow the line" until I get out of here (most people only leave in a body bag). I am feeling very good and feeling happy despite the upsetting news. I just have never been told I am a "retard" before. I am glad you and Bonnie are doing so well and enjoy hearing about the garden. Am also happy that Mallory was so helpful to you. Going to shower and go to bed early.

I love you two!!

Have to hurry. Taking Bonnie to the skin doctor for a place on her face. Just won't clear up. We are both fine. Have been to the garden. Lots of figs and tomatoes. Hugh is coming tonight and will be here tomorrow. Bonnie has already made a pineapple upside cake this morning. Rebecca has a meeting this morning and we are anxious to learn how it came out. Love you all very much, Bill

Hello Bill and Bonnie,

I had been unable to send or receive e-mails since I got out of the hospital and am very happy to say that problem is now fixed.

I received your letters yesterday and, like you, am in love with that spotted mule. He is beautiful!

Things in the "institution" are going fairly well. I am behaving and following the program and am super fortunate to have John watching out for me. I would like a little more sleep, but am otherwise doing well. My psychiatrist says she thinks it is not an appropriate place since it is for people with brain damage which I, thankfully do not have.

Thank ya'll so very much for the stationery and your cards and letters. It brightens my day. I am sorry I haven't called, but I don't get a break until evening when I think you'll be sleeping. I will call this weekend.

I am excited to see Ann this weekend!! It will be a wonderful change of pace. We will call you together. She is allowed to take me off campus, and we plan on getting pedicures which will be nice.

Please do not worry about me here. I am being very cooperative and am working very hard on being good. There is nothing I want more than to be healthy and see you two again!

If and when I get out I would like John to take me to Bowie, TX to see the cemetery where Memaw's family is buried. I will get pictures for you.

I surely do love you two VERY much and can't wait to see you.
I love you very much!!!

Love,

Rebecca

John and I plan to meet today to talk out a solution to our problems. I am optimistic and am prepared to compromise in any way possible. Please don't worry. I just needed someone who loves me to talk to.

I love you two VERY much!! Please relax.

I e-mailed Lew and told him I didn't think it will be a good time to come. No one wants to be a guest in an unhappy home.

I DO love ya'll!!

Dear Bill -

I got out of the hospital today. I'm a little sore but really glad to be out after last week. I'm going over to school tomorrow and talk to my teachers. Bonnie and I got Bud to help us move out and are all settled in the motel. Both Kenny Wilson and Kevin called tonight.

I don't have much to say. I just wanted to write and say thank you for what you did for me. I hope I can be as good and "old man" to my kids someday. Take as good care of the girls this week as you did of me last week and every thing will be fine. Thank you again -

Your Son,

Dear Bill and Bonnie,

Yesterday turned out to be a great, busy day. I have been missing Clyde so much. I went to the animal shelter, and after seeing dozens of dogs, I adopted a one year old german shepard I named Emory. She is so beautiful and smart - and grateful! Her eyes were the closest looking to Clyde's that I could find. I am working today on training her and teaching her tricks. She is missing her right, rear leg but doesn't seem to know she's handicapped. She is SO beautiful!! . Chloe and Jake have taken nicely to her and are teaching her dog etiquette.

I feel very good today. No rain of course. I hope you two are having a great day.

I love you two very much!

BRADEN, Virginia Ellen

VIRGINIA ELLEN BARR BRADEN

On Saturday, May 2nd, Virginia "Gini" Barr Braden lost her five year battle with ovarian cancer. Gini had recently undergone aggressive treatments and was recovering in the hospital when she passed away. She was born February 5, 1944, in Bowdon, GA, one of four children of John and Jean Barr. Following graduation from Bowdon High School in 1962, she attended Piedmont Hospital Nursing School and graduated in the class of 1965. In that same month she married Larry L. Braden of Atlanta and they settled in Acworth, GA, while she began working with Dr. Douglas Glover in his medical practice in Marietta. She and Larry acquired a local pharmacy and worked closely together in a wide range of activities during their nearly forty-four years of marriage. While practicing her profession she expanded her nursing career into working with members of the physicians community on clinical drug trials. She and Larry have two children, Jonathan Braden and Katie Braden Robertson, both of Acworth. Gini was active in the community and in the Acworth United Methodist Church, where she began playing the piano years ago. Over the last several years, she greatly enjoyed singing in the choir, where she was surrounded by a close knit group of dear friends. In addition to her husband and two children, she is survived by her daughter-in-law, Susann Meadows Braden, son-in-law, Brent Robertson, and grandchildren Lindsey and Trammell Braden, and Emily and Will Robertson; her brother Robert P. Barr, and sister Carroll Ann Barr King, both of Carrollton, GA, and four nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and her older brother John H. Barr, III. Gini had a deep commitment to and love for children and served on the board of Kids Peace, a home for neglected children in Bowdon. She was a Cobb County Court Appointed Special Advocate and chaired a Panel serving as a voice before the courts for neglected and abused children. Fond of gardening, she had a special group of fellow gardener friends. Over the past several years she and her family enjoyed frequent trips to their home on St. Simons Island, which had provided many pleasant respites during her years of cancer treatment. Gini leaves a legacy of love, sharing, supporting and courage. Her family, friends and countless others for whom she has become a beacon in their individual life's challenges shall always remember the blessing of her sharing herself with us. The family will receive visitors at Acworth United Methodist Church from 6pm-9pm on Monday. A memorial service will be held at 2pm on Tuesday at the church. In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to the Evelyn Butler Fund at KidsPeace, 101 KidsPeace Drive., Bowdon, GA 30108 or the Ovarian Cancer Institute, 980 Johnson Ferry Road, NE, Suite 900, Atlanta, GA 30342.
