

HE Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
 And one clear call for me!
 And may there be
 no moaning of the bar,
 When I put out to sea.

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
 The flood may bear me far
 I hope to see my Pilot
 face to face
 When I have crossed the bar.

but with love and pearls of giving,
She embraced us not with tired arms
But with wings of freedom to lift us up where we belong,
And she touched God's face each time she gave of herself,

Evelyn Halverson

Evelyn (Polly) Halverson, born February 11, 1925 in Bowden, Georgia passed away Tuesday, Dec. 11, 2007. She met and married her husband Arthur Ray Halverson, Jr., who was a B-24 pilot during World War II. They were married for 54 years. Her first love was her family including her beloved husband and one daughter Gail McNeese. She leaves 4 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren, one sister Bonnie Barrow, of Carrollton, GA. She was preceded in death by her husband, and her brother, Darrow Spruill of Mableton, GA. In 1953, she and her husband moved to Atlanta, Georgia and began their long successful career in building. She was the only female registered builder at that time, specializing in decorating the homes their company built. They finished their building career by constructing their dream home on Lake Lanier. In their retirement, they began to build a business in antiques and art in North Georgia and East Tennessee. When her husband's health began to fail, they made Gatlinburg their full time residence. After Mr. Halverson's death, she began her third career in concierge work starting at the River Terrace Resort and later with her beloved friend Doug Brooks at the Park Vista.

Throughout her life she demonstrated a positive attitude and appreciated the beauty in the world.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her name to the American Liver Foundation, Mid South Chapter, 1010 June Road, Suite 101, Memphis, TN, 38119. www.liverfoundation.org (1-800-223-0197).

Memorial service 1 PM Sunday, December 16th at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Gatlinburg. Pastor Ed Wolff will officiate.
